Wife Murderer Day Fills the Ends of Justice by Meeting Death on the Gallows.

WELLAND, Ont., Dec. 18.—Arthur Hoyt Day, the Rochester wife murderer, was hanged at 8 o'clock this morning. The condemned man spent his last night on earth in writing letters to his relatives and singing gospel hymns, his favorite selection being "Scatter Seeds of Kindness," and "On the Way from Earth to Heaven I will guide Thee with Mine Eye." There was a tremor in his voice as he sang, and so far as his stunted moral nature would allow he was deeply affected. He did not stop more than half an hour all night. The letters which he sent to his brothers contained affectionate greetings and an exhortation to lead a better life. Up to the last he passionately blamed his sister, who, he claimed, was the one who planned the visit from Rochester to the river. He would not admit having actually pushed his wife over the bank, but his denial was not emphatic and it is generally believed that he carried out to the letter the arrangements which his sister enabled him to arrive at. Rev. Mr. McCuiag left him at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and returned at 4 o'clock this morning. He and the condemed man then engaged in earnest prayer and the latter listened and took part with evident sincerity. At 7 o'clock he resumed the singing of hymns. His rough uncultured voice sounded almost sweet with added pathos and feeling. Breakfast was then served, and consisted of coffee, toast, broiled chicken and oysters. The death warrant was then read to the condemned man, and the procession to the scaffold began. Day walked calmly out to the rude structure from which he was to be launched into eternity. There was no delay or hitch of any kind. Promptly at 8 o'clock, or perhaps a moment or two before, the minister said the last consoling words.

Day was placed directly in the center of the scaffold. He bore himself with composure and to all outward appearance was the least affected, and most jaunty of those assembled. After calmly surveying the crowd of spectators, which numbered several hundred, he shook hands in turn with the jailor, sheriff and minister, and simply said good bye. The hangman quickly adjusted the strap to his legs, the black cap was pulled down and the fatal noose adjusted. Rev. Mr. McCuiag offered the Lord's prayer and as the words "Deliver us from evil" were uttered at a sign from the sheriff, the hangman pulled the cord and the great weight dropped, jerking the wretched victim six or seven feet into the air. He came down with another great jerk and after a few spasmodic convulsions, lasting only a minute and a half, the body hung motionless in the air. After twenty minutes had elapsed the body was cut down and the doctors after a brief examination declared the neck unbroken and that death was produced by strangulation.

The crime was committed on Sunday, July 27, last. Six years ago he married Desire Chatterton. Their married life does not appear to have been very pleasant, and on July 12 last, Day married Mary E. Breen at Canadaiguia, under the name of Arthur Hoyt. He brought her to Rochester and lived with her. On July 27, Day took wife No. 1 and his sister, Mrs. Quigley, to Niagara Falls. They crossed to the Canadian side and proceeded on their walk along the bank in the direction of the whirlpool. Mrs. Quigley sat down to rest and Day and his wife continued their walk. The last Mrs. Quigley saw of them they were standing close to the edge of the high river bank. When she looked again, Mrs. Day had disappeared. Day returned and told his sister he had pushed his wife over the bank and that he wanted to be rid of her. Day and his sister then returned to Rochester, and the body of the murdered wife was not found until two weeks later.

THE TRUSTS AT WORK.

The Champion Harvesting Company Wants All Agents to Resign.

FORT DODGE, Iowa, Dec. 18.—Every local agent of the Champion Harvesting company in this territory has been requested by the company to forward their resignations at once. The reason given for this wholesale decapitation is that the American Harvesting company, the new trust, will hereafter transact all the business of the company. To some of the older and most trusted agents it was thought that the trust might insure them situations shortly. As this course was followed by other companies of the company, hundreds of men will be thrown out of situtions in this territory.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The severe storm central yesterday along the Virginia coast has moved northeastward to Nova Scotia. The winds on the Atlantic coast have shifted to northeastern or west, and will continue high during the day. The weather will clear during the day in the middle Atlantic states, and in the New England States during the night. The conditions are favorable for fair weather in all districts east of the Mississippi during Friday.

For Indiana: Fair, northwesterly winds; slightly colder.

UNITED IRELAND

Comes Out Strong for Parnell's Kilkenny Candidate.

DUBLIN, Dec. 18.—United Ireland takes strong grounds to-day for the Parnell candidate in Kilkenny. The paper says that the election virtually involves the national existence of Ireland; that the maintenance of a central idea of nationalhood depends upon freedom from alien dictation; that Mr. Gladstone's pretensions to control the decision of the Irish people have been and would have been repudiated had the Irish leaders acted with due respect to themselves and to their countrymen as men of spirit and sound patriotic judgment would have acted. The attempt to degrade Parnell was the result of a conspiracy which has been hatching for years, awaiting an opportunity for the conspirators to seize upon. Personal hatred, vanity and envy were the motives which actuated some of the conspirators and others had even baser reasons. Healy's putrid scurility, Tanner's debauched ruffianism and Davitt's rancorous jealousy, are significant.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The Telegraph's Kilkenny dispatch says, that the missile which struck Mr. Parnell, was a paper bag filled with slaked lime or plaster of paris. It was deliberately thrown at Parnell from a distance of six feet. The darkness made it impossible to detect the culprit.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The Standard expresses doubt as to the advisability of Mr. Chamberlain's scheme for the formation of a new party. The facts, it says, are tending to call into existence a nation of unionists and conservatives.

KILKENNY, Dec. 18.—Mr. Parnell, with his eyes still bandaged, to day entered a closed carriage and started to attend a meeting in the interest of Mr. Vincent Scully, his candidate for the house of commons from North Kilkenny which was to be held at Goersbridge and Gowran. Before he had proceeded far on his journey the carriage collapsed, and it was found necessary to procure another conveyance. Entering Goersbridge, Mr. Parnell alighted, and with his head elaborately swathed in laces of lint and ostentatiously guided by his colleagues, appeared in the midst of his followers with fine dramatic effect. The appearance of the Irish leader as his friends slowly led him up to the platform and turned his veiled face toward the sympathetic Irishmen who sat far in front of him, was one well calculated to stir the depths of their enthusiastic natures. That it accomplished its purpose was speedily made evident in the cheers which went up for Parnell, and the maledictions hurled at his enemies. The feeling of bitterness grows with every hour, and, by their respective followers, Mr. Parnell and Mr. Davitt are held up to view as martyrs for the cause of Ireland.

KILKENNY, Dec. 18.—In the city corporation to day, an attempt was made to pass resolutions endorsing Sir John Pope Hennesey, candidate of anti Parnellites for election to the house of commons from North Kilkenny. The Parnellite members immediately objected, whereupon an upoar ensued and words other than polite and challenges to fight were bandied about the chamber.

In the midst of the tumult the mayor arose from his seat as presiding officer, and followed by the friends of Sir John Pope Hennessey, and the execrations and derision of the Parnellite city fathers, left the building. The Parnellites then elected a chairman and promptly adopted resolutions expressing unchanged confidence in Mr. Parnell.

COAL MINERS AND OPERATORS

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 18.—A joint meeting of the coal miners and operators of the state was held here yesterday to discuss grievances. The meeting is composed of committees from the miners and operators, each committee composed of seven members. There were a large number of grievances to be considered and the session lasted from an early part of the afternoon until a late hour. The board decided that the miners at Clinton shall have extra pay for working in mines which contain water. In most of the other cases the board decided that it had no jurisdiction.

"A SON IS BORN."

Great Glee Over a Birth in a Royal Family.

BERLIN, Dec. 18.—The empress gave birth to a son, last night, while the emperor was at the opera house. A runner was at once sent to his majesty, who hastened to the palace. The manager of the opera house announced the event to the audience, who made the theater sound with cheers for the emperor and empress. The audience stood up and joined in singing the national hymn, which was played by the band.

THEIR BLOOD IS UP!

The Hostil Indians at Work and Engage in a Couple of Battles With Soldiers.

DENVER, Dec. 18.—A dispatch from Rapid City, timed 3:30 a. m., says: "A courier just in has aroused the camp. He brings the tidings that fifteen men are besieged by the Indians on Spring Creek at Dalley's ranch. Three attempts have been made by the hostiles to fire the ranch, one of which was nearly successful. One of the men is the Hon. H. M. Day, aid de camp to the governor of the state. The courier had to fight his way through, the Indians firing both right and left. General Carr has sent Major Tupper with 100 men to the rescue and if the Indians are encountered by the major and his force, short work will be made of them as Major Tupper is determed."

A special from the camp of the Sixth cavalry, on the Cheyenne river, via Rapid City, says: "The troops here were joined early this morning by Major Perry's command. Scout H. Craven reports that a large number of Indians were seen in a small creek near Smithville, in the brakes. Shots were exchanged. While some of the government wagons were crossing Spring Creek, they and their escort were attacked by about forty Indians, and over 100 shots exchanged. One soldier was wounded, and another shot through the hat. A troop of Captain Wells' cavalry came to their rescue, but the Indians, seeing which, ran away. Mr. Cravens states that he saw sixty-three tepees, which contained about 200 Indians. They were camped near the mouth of Spring Creek early this morning, and troops were sent out, but the hostiles had again returned to the Bad Lands. General Carr sent last night and to-night, armed parties to guard the ranch where the Indian was killed yesterday. The dead Indian is laid out in front of the ranch, with his rifle beside him to act as a bait to attract other Indians to capture the body. All day a number of Indians, who did not care to approach, have been about. The dead Indian is a nephew of Kicking Bear. General Carr sent a troop of cavalry yesterday up into the Bad Lands to watch the movements of the hostiles. A signal was established by which the troop was to be reinforced in case there was an attack. They reported about seventy tepees being seen in the Indian stronghold and totally inaccessable. The only known outlet of escape for these Indians is a trail which goes up Cottonwood across the route from Rapid Creek to Wounded Knee, crossing Cottonwood before it crosses Bad Water to near the high space occupied by the hostiles. This pass will be closed to-morrow, by a large body of troops of the sixth infantry.

A BOY SUICIDES.

A Mixture of Religion, Love and Unhappiness the Cause.

CHICAGO, Dec 18.—Fred C. Martell, a boy sixteen years old, who was employed in the office of F. A. Woodbury, attorney, committed suicide last night by shooting himself. The deed was done in the office of his employer, and the boy's body was found stiff and cold this morning. The boy's body, entirely divested of clothing, was stretched in the middle of the floor. There was a bullet-hole, from which the blood had flowed profusely, in the center of the breast, and the bullet had gone entirely through the body. In a pigeon-hole of the boy's desk was found a note, in which the boy said that in case the shot was not fatal and he lived any length of time, he wanted Miss Ida McLean, of the Belden avenue Presbyterian church, called to act as his nurse. The suicide seems to have been prompted by a mixture of religion, love and unhappiness at home. His mother was divorced some time ago, and married a man between whom and the son there was a pronounced dislike and the bitter feeling between them preyed upon the boy's mind.

WHITE BUFFALO

PIERRE, S. D., Dec. 18.—White Buffalo, son of Sitting Bull, who lives among the Two Kettle Sioux, on Bad river, came to the city yesterday and learned of his father's death. He is an intelligent Indian and has taken no part in the Messiah business. An interpreter learned from him that he had long expected his father to be killed and he had no sympathy with the course Sitting Bull had always pursued. He said Sitting Bull had always acted cruelly towards his children, which was the cause of White Buffalo leaving and going to live with more civilized tribes. He wanted to see all the hostiles disarmed, or served as his father had been.

They Must Hang.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 18.—Governor Campbell announced last night that he would not interfere in the cases of Isaac Smith, Henry Popp and Elmore Sharkey, condemned murderers, sentenced to be hanged at the Ohio penitentiary. There will be a triple hanging soon after the hour of midnight. Smith has been reprieved six times, twice by Governor Foraker and four times by Governor Campbell.

STORM ECHOES.

Much Damage Done Throughout New York and Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—The railroad which runs from Cape May over to Anglesea, N. J., has been washed away for a distance of three and one-half miles, the track being piled up against the telegraph poles. Communication with Anglesea can only be held by means of boats. At Sea Isle City considerable damage was done. The railroad from that point to Ocean City, which runs along the beach, was badly damaged, as is also the road to Avenlon. Washouts are numerous and it will be several weeks before communication with these points is fully restored. The bridges across the Townsend inlet and the Corsons inlet are reported damaged.

At Reading, Pa., a chimney was blown over and Miss Ella Grath was struck by the fragments and probably fatally injured.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 18.—A snow, sleet, rain and wind storm of considerable severity prevailed in this city all day yesterday. The slush was about four inches deep, making it difficult for pedestrians to get about. Traffic of all kind was partially suspended.

A BUILDING COLLAPSES.

NEW YORK, Dec., 18.—At 2 o'clock this morning, the high wind blew down the wall of Schaffer & Co., on Park avenue, between Fifty and Fifty-first streets. No one was hurt. The firm estimate the loss at about $10,000. The wall was the front end of the malt house, in which was stored at least 200,000 bushels of barley which went down with the wreck. At 9 o'clock last night the wall was noticed to be bulging and police were detailed to prevent anyone going near it, and when at 2 o'clock the wall collapsed, there was no one near it, but the watchful policemen. Some members of the firm are of the opinion that the wreck was caused, not alone by the high wind, but by the overweight of the barley in the malt house.

HEAVY FALURES.

They Occur at Numerous Points—Losses Will Reach Millions.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 18.—Owen Bros., agents of the Atlantic mills, have made an assignment to Charles H. Merriam. Liabilities are large, but the mills will continue as usual under the management of Stephen O. Metcalf. The assignee refuses to give any figures. The amount, which is no doubt about half a million dollars, is confined to a few local debtors who will be able to stand the loss.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Sulsbach, Weinge & Roker, silk manufacturers at College Point, yesterday confessed judgment for $58,880 in favor of Wm. Oppenheim & Sons, importers, of this city, who have been their commission merchants. It is said the liabilities are about $150,000, and nominal assets in excess of that amount.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—S. A. Kern, the banker whose failure was announced late last evening, made an assignment this morning. The assets and liabilities are not yet known.

KEOKUK, Ia., Dec. 18.—Collus, Robertson & Hambleton, who gave a mortgage on their wholesale grocery stock and building a few days ago, yesterday made an assignment to James W. Hummers, of the state bank. The schedule of liabilities amounts to over $184,000. Assets less than one half of this amount.

ROME, Ga., Dec. 18.—McGhee & Co., grocers and cotton factors, have closed their doors. Assets $175,000; liabilities, $150,000.

HOOSIER RUFFIAN.

He Assaults His Grand-Parents and is Lodged Behind the Bars.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Dec. 18.—Lincoln Gossett, the rascal who assaulted the old couple, Asa Warnock and wife, at Honey Creek, last Friday night, is in jail here, having made a confession, and will be sentenced. He is a grandson of the old people, and was recognized by the old lady while at his work. She informed his father, who is a United Brethren minister, and he began to hunt the matter down. Yesterday he confronted the young man at Elwood, where he was working, with the evidence at hand, and the latter broke down and confessed the crime. He had become heavily involved at Elwood, and knowing that the old people had money, walked all the way to their house—a distance of forty miles—only to get $2. The father brought him here and turned him over to the authorities. Young Gossett is twenty-five years old and has hitherto borne a good reputation. He confesses that this is the third time he has tried to rob the old people.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Wheat: Dec., 91; May, $1.00. Corn: May, 53¾. Oats: May, 45½. Pork: Jan., $10 05; May, $11.07½. Lard: Jan., $5.77½; May, $6.37. Ribs: Jan., $5 00; May, $5.62½.

Saturday night last a special train over the Wabash road made the run from Kansas City to Chicago, 512 miles, in twelve hours and forty-five minutes.

JACK THE HUGGER.

The Villain Who Has Dodged Our Officers for so Long is Caught at Last.

THE SENTINEL is able to-day to chronicle the arrest of Jack, the Hugger, the despicable villain who for a week or more has terrified the ladies of this city by his bold, rude and outrageous acts.

The above paragraph will be news to even the police officers of this city, who have been on the hunt for the fellow, but whom he has successfuly evaded, to be caught at last in one of the cities of the western states.

His career in this city is well known. He was given the names of "Jack, the Kisser" and "Jack, the Hugger," and created a sensation by stopping ladies and girls on the street, generally in the evening, and making attempts to embrace and kiss them, in many of which he was successful.

His acts became so bold and so oft repeated that a vigilance committee to hunt the villain was even talked of. He seemed to be everywhere and nowhere. One person would describe him in a certain manner and others would give an entirely different description of the rascal. The police would hear of him often, but were unable to catch a sight of him and his acts became so numerous that many ladies desisted from going out on the streets at night alone for fear of being assaulted by the scoundrel. Hence the news of his capture will be read by all with a feeling of gratification.

None of his acts have been heard of in this city since last Sunday night. Late that evening a fellow, answering the description of Jack was seen to board a freight train on the Pennsylvania road going west. He must have traveled fast, for Tuesday night he was at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he at once commenced the same career that he carried on in this city. He was there yesterday morning. He gave his name as John Harder and claimed to be from New York. He was arrested on the charge of robbing a hen roost. When his pockets were searched a full set of burglars' tools and a revolver were found. He also answered the description of "Jack, the Hugger," which some of the women whom he had embraced gave. He was bound over to await the action of the grand jury.

CLAIMED BY DEATH.

At the home of her mother, Mrs. Joseph G. McMaken, 851 East Wayne street, at 8 o'clock last evening occurred the death of Miss Delia McMaken at the age of thirty six years, of a complication of diseases. She had been confined as an invalid to her bed for over a year and was a great sufferer. She was a daughter of Mr. Joseph G. McMaken, who located on a farm in St. Joe township, four miles out on the Maysville pike, in 1832, who, at the time of his death some years ago, was well and favorably known throughout the county. Miss McMaken was for a number of years a teacher in the city free schools and was very popular with all her pupils. She was a member of the Berry street Methodist church and the funeral which will be held Sunday will probably occur from there. Rev. D. C. Woolyert, of Warsaw, formerly pastor of that charge, has been asked to conduct the service. When death came to the esteemed lady she was surrounded by her mother and brothers and sisters, who did all in their power to make her closing hours peaceful.

FELL DEAD.

Death Comes to Mr. Vance White in a Fit.

A man named Vance fell dead in the new yards of the Pennsylvania company this morning in a fit. He was a pauper and will be buried at the expense of the county.

The Wabash people are said to be meeting with good success in the securing of the right of way for their new line into Chicago. Securing of the old right of way of the Canada Southern through Steuben county was a big lift for the enterprise.

MET HIS DEATH.

Conductor Gage, Formerly of This City Killed at Cleveland.

Yesterday, at Cleveland, Ohio, Conductor Gage, of the Nickel Plate, was killed by falling between the cars of his train in the yards.

He was formerly in the employ of the Grand Rapids road in this city, but has been with the Nickel Plate for the last few years. He met his death instantly.

THROUGH A BRIDGE.

An Express Train Goes Down With Numerous Passengers Aboard.

SOUTH QUEBEC, Dec. 18.—At 11:55 this morning the west bound Halifax express went through St. Joseph bridge, near Levis. It is reported that some of the passengers were killed, and a number wounded. All the train went through the bridge except the baggage-car.

Spinners' Trouble.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Dec. 18.—Thirty mule spinners and ten back bearers at the Achushnett mills left work yesterday afternoon, and at an open air meeting appointed a committee to wait on the mill authorities. The trouble is said to be the use of poor stock, which reduces wages. If no satisfaction can be obtained the matter will be placed in the hands of local branches of the spinners' union.

LOCAL LINES.

Dr. W. W. Steele, of Waveland, under arrest at Anderson, charged with being the highwayman, who "held up" a number of persons in Madison county in October last, although he has been identified by several parties, is believed to be innocent, for a number of prominent people at Waveland are ready to make affidavit that he was at home on the night in question. Dr. Steele bears a strong personal resemblance to one Roberts, known as the "Bandit of the Wabash," and the last mentioned person is thought to have committed the robberies complained of.

THE WAYS OF WIES.

Drunkenness and Theft Get Him Behind the Prison Bars—J. Stanley Cortright Goes to Jail.

When the police court was called to order this morning, with Mayor Harding presiding and Marshal Franke as officer, Jacob Weis was arraigned on the charge of larceny. He was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer O'Ryan on an affidavit charging him with stealing carpenter's tools from Contractor James A Crow, for whom he occasionally worked, and also from Contractor Clark. Weis is a middle-aged man and has a wife and three children living in the eastern part of the city. At one time he was a sober and industrious carpenter, and had plenty of work to do, but he took to drink, and since then he has been going on the downward road to ruin. At first he only occasionally indulged in the flowing bowl in the evening after work with a few of his boon companions, but stronger and stronger grew the habit upon him until work was neglected, and at last he became almost a total wreck. What wages he earned found their way into the saloonkeeper's till for drink, and he became abusive to his wife and children. Deeper and deeper he sank, and ere long, such were his habits, that he found himself unable to procure work. Money must be had to satisfy the cravings for drink and to obtain it he resorted to theft, stealing tools from his fellow workmen and his employers to obtain it. His last act and the one which has placed him behind prison bars, was the stealing of $35 worth of tools from Contractors Crow and Clark. These he stole a few days ago, and either sold them or pawned them for whisky. When arrested yesterday by Officer O'Ryan, he was quite drunk. He was placed in the cell at the station house, and when arraigned for trial this morning before the Mayor, appeared without an attorney. In answer to the usual question from the Mayor: "What have you to say to the charge against you?" he answered: "I may have took them; but if I did, I was so drunk at the time that I didn't know what I was doing." The testimony of a few witnesses proving him guilty was taken and he was bound over to court in the sum of $400, and being unable to give security he was sent to jail.

Weis was taken before Judge O'Rourke in the circuit court this afternoon. He plead guilty and was sentenced for one year in the penitentiary.

The next criminal to be arraigned before his honor was J. Stanley Cortright, who was arrested on the charge of cruelty to animals. Cortright was ejected from a saloon the other evening on account of his being very drunk and disorderly, and to satisfy his thirst for revenge against somebody or something, commenced beating a horse that was hitched to a post in front. He was arrested and will now languish in jail for thirty days as a result. He gave his name as Carter at the police court this morning, but THE SENTINEL reporter knew better, and although his name goes down on the police and jail records as such, we record it to day as J. Stanley Cortright. He is a tramp printer and has a sort of an unsavory record, having appeared in the criminal courts of other cities on various occasions. He will serve his time here and then perhaps start out on the road again. If he does not let whisky alone, however, THE SENTINEL will ere long chronicle his entrance to the penitentiary at Michigan City or somewhere else.

The only other prisoner arraigned before the mayor was a man for being drunk and disorderly. He paid his fine and was released.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

By the Allen Building Association and the Organ Company Employes.

The third annual meeting of the German Allen Building, Loan and Savings association was held at the Custer house last night. Officers were elected as follows: President, Henry Zur Muehlen; secretary, Otto Herbst; treasurer, George Motz; directors, August M. Schmidt, John Muehlfeith, Theodore Geller, John Rabus, Wm. Schneider, sr., August Huxoll; auditing committee, A. F. Glutting, C. H. Leinker, Wm. Ranke, Wm. Paul, Aug. M. Schmidt. The association is in a flourishing condition, each share being worth $69.89.

Last evening occurred the annual meeting of the Employes' Benefit association of the Fort Wayne Organ company. The statement of the treasurer showed the association to be in excellent financial standing. It has a paid up membership of sixty-five, and during the past year disbursed $200 in sick dues. The treasury still has a surplus, and the future is bright. The following officers were elected: President, Edward French; vice president, George Haswell; treasurer, H. C. Lehnert; financial secretary, F. N. McGuire; recording secretary, G. S. Williams; trustees, M. Kimmel, J. Kimmel and J. Selkmau; inner guard, J. Ryan.

The county commissioners finished allowing bills for the present term yesterday.

THE bond of Secretary of State Claude Matthews has been filed. It is for $10,000 and the sureties are Josephus Collett, Judge Joshua Jump, Louis B Martin and Leslie D. Thomas. He will take his office some time the latter part of next month.

THE members of the Columbus club gave a complimentary dinner to Allen G. Thurman and his wife at the club rooms last night. With the exception of Ex-Governor Foster, all the invited guests were residents of that city. Col. E. L. Taylor was toastmaster and speeches were made by Judge Thurman, Governor Campbell and others, The affair was purely local in character.

WILLIAM H. FOULKE, of Richmond, Indiana, the newly appointed president of Swarthmore college, in a lecture at Philadelphia the other evening said: "One great drawback and source of danger to our country is having so many millionaires in the United States senate, and another is our method of electing a president. The president of the United States or any other republic should be elected by the popular vote and not by any college of voters."

AT a meeting in Jacksonville, Fla., last night, attended by General Master Workman Powderly and John Davis, member elect of congress from Kansas, on behalf of the Knights of Labor; President Polk, National Lecturer Willets, of Kansas, member of the executive board, Wardall, of North Dakota, and others of the farmers' alliance, it was decided to have no convention at Cincinnati, February 23, as had been arranged. It was decided that in its stead a conference of committees of five from each of the organizations represented should be held some time in February, which should go over the ground carefully and without taking formal action practically decide which course of action should be pursued. This is a decided victory for the conservative element among the third party men.

SOME member of the Indiana legislature who desires to immortalize himself and confer an unmeasurable blessing upon the people of this commonwealth should, at the next session, introduce a measure to impose a tax on cats. Three fourths of those who read the above sentence, if they are owners of cats, will hold up their hands in holy horror that THE SENTINEL should advocate such a measure. Well, why not? There is a tax on dogs. He is a noble, faithful animal and man's true friend. Why should the cat go on the free list and the dog be made to pay a certain amount every year for the privilege of living? It is true he sometimes barks at night and occasionally you find one that kills sheep, but the majority of them deserve more consideration at the hands of legislators than the cats. They don't sit on back yard fences on moonlight nights and utter unearthly yells—yells that are worse than those given by Comanche warriors and which arouse the neighborhood from their slumbers. Cats do this and if for the purpose of abating the nuisance, and saving boot-jacks and fire-wood, the legislature could impose a tax on cats, would it not be an act of justice to the dogs?

M'BRIDE MADE JUDGE.

By one of those freaks of fortune which make and unmake men, Robert W. McBride, of Elkhart county, is now in the seat on the supreme court bench which his late successful competitor, Judge Joseph A. S. Mitchell, occupied, whose sudden death at Goshen a few days ago will be recalled. It was generally supposed that the governor would fill the vacancy by appointing Judge McBride, who was the republican nominee for supreme court justice against Judge Mitchell in the late campaign. There were four other candidates, but inside republican ranks it was felt that there was a special fitness, in a party sense at least, in the candidacy of Judge McBride. The hope was entertained by some citizens that the governor would appoint a democrat to fill Judge Mitchell's place by reason of the fact that the majority of the people had recently voted with the democracy, and because Judge Mitchell's death took away the only democrat on the bench. In the event of such an appointment it was supposed that Judge W. E. Niblack, so long an honored justice, would be most conspicuous among those considered.

The appointment yesterday sets all speculation at rest, and elevates Mr. McBride to the place honored by his predecessor. The appointment upon the whole, seems to have met the general expectation, and is looked upon with favor. Judge McBride is a gentleman of excellent reputation. Like his predecessor he was a soldier, and rendered distinguished service to the state before he became known as a jurist. As a DeKalb county circuit judge, Mr. McBride is said to have righted many long standing wrongs, and to have aroused some little personal opposition thereby. Generally speaking, however, he is a popular and affable gentleman.

Judge McBride's appointment was recommended to the governor by the bars of nearly all the twenty one counties in the judicial district which he will represent on the supreme bench. These recommendations were made by attorneys of both political parties and it is true that there was not a democrat application for the appointment.

TOOK ON ANOTHER LOVE.

There is a woman in Lafayette, Ind., who has lost much of the faith she once had in the masculine gender. She was bright, intelligent and good and never knew the want of a beau. One day she met a gentleman, a mutual attachment was formed and two years ago they united their hands and hearts for life it was thought. A babe came to gladden their home and all seemed sunshine and joy in their happy cottage.

The Lafayette Journal tells the story in this way: "A few months ago the husband became dissatisfied with Lafayette and moved to Fort Wayne. He found employment and made a home for his family in that thriving city. A short time ago the wife picked up a letter addressed to her husband. It was written in a feminine hand and the writing was strange to her. She opened it and read the contents. The words of tender affection traced within were entirely foreign to what should be addressed to a married man. While she was reading her husband came in, snatched the letter from her and upbraided her for prying into his private correspondence. It was not long until his wife found another letter written to her husband by the same woman. She even discovered him writing letters to his new love. That was too much and a scene followed. Their home life was not so happy after these startling discoveries.

"Just before Thanksgiving the husband urged his wife to visit her parents here and she came. She wrote him two letters after her arrival but did not receive an answer. She wrote a third letter and its tone rang of despair. He answered that, but not in the language her aching heart craved to hear.

"I have two of your letters here I have not opened," he said. "It seems to me you will take a hint some time. I quit housekeeping the next day after you left and have sold all of the furniture. I don't want to see you any more, and don't write to me."

"The cold, brutal language of his letter crushed the life out of his wife's heart. Her womanly pride asserted itself and she determined to gratify his desire to never see him again. But there was still a duty to perform. He had sold some articles of household use belonging to her and cast her and her child away from him without a penny to supply their wants. She had gone with him to the altar as a pure woman. She had one divinely womanly attribute—virtue, and it was stainless. She had left a comfortable home and indulgent parents to wed him and had given him her love and devotion unrestricted.

"After doing so much for him she now feels that he, although he has renounced her, should do something for her and their child, and has employed counsel to bring suit at Fort Wayne to compel him to supply means for the support of herself and child. Her demand is just.

"The lady feels the humiliation of her position deeply, and the Journal will not add weight to her already crushing burden by giving her name to the public. She is a deserted wife, and is suffering all the anguish attending that misfortune. Her sad experience is not new in history, but it is certainly deserving of sympathy.

OUR OWN GENIAL BOB.

Hon. Robert C. Bell Talks Knowingly on Important Questions.

Yesterday's Indianapolis Sentinel contained the following: "'I am for Cleveland, now,' said R. C. Bell, of Fort Wayne, to a number of politicians at the Grand last night. Mr. Bell has heretofore favored Hill for 1892, but he is now convinced that Cleveland is the logical candidate, and to fight the next campaign with Cleveland left out would be like 'playing Hamlet without Hamlet in it.' Cleveland, he said, was the high priest of tariff reform, and the next battle would be won as the last one was won—on the tariff issue.

"Mr. Bell is connected, in a legal capacity, with the project to pipe natural gas to Chicago. The company has laid pipes from the gas fields of Howard county to Hammond. The Chicago aldermen were inclined to put on the screws and the company resisted it. This action would result in making a large city in Lake county, this state. The 'Chicago' of Indiana would get natural gas, which would induce manufacturers to move over into Indiana and build the largest city in the state. He ridiculed the idea that natural gas would exhaust during the present generation. There was enough gas to last a hundred years, if not wasted. Natural gas, he said, was the champagne of fuel, and the trouble with many people was that they expected to obtain it at lager beer prices.

"On the question of fees and salaries, Mr. Bell said that the time was ripe for placing officers on salaries. The question had been before every legislature for ten years, but the people would stand no more delays. The demand for a salary bill was imperative. He was aware that this session would be a trying one for the members of the legislature. County officers would bring all the influence to bear upon their representatives possible. Between the people and the county officer the life of the legislator would be made miserable during the next two months, but he would advise members to stand by the platform, and the people would stand by them in the end.

"Mr. Bell served two terms in the state senate, where he was a recognized leader. He is one of the ablest lawyers in the state, and had he followed politics instead of adhearing to the law he would, no doubt, be a conspicuous member of congress to-day."

A Wonder Worker.

Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used half of a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is to day enjoying good health. If you have any Throat, Lung or Chest Trouble try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at Dreier & Bro.'s drug store.

Some time ago the boys at the water works pumping house on the north side espied a rabbit running about the grounds surrounding the works. They had different times made efforts to capture it, but were not successful. Bunnie was too cute for them, and was having considerable fun at their expense; so much so, that one of the boys thought he would turn matters a little the other morning. Quite early he had occasion to make a trip outside the pumping house, when he came in all out of breath and reported that the rabbit was in sight, but a short distance away. A gun, which stood convenient, was procured, and all present rushed out to see the rabbit "bite the dust." But who should do the shooting? They were all marksmen, but this must be a sure shot. No more failures were wanted. After some parleying, during which each one presented his qualifications as a disciple of Buffalo Bill in the "dead shot" line, the weapon was handed to Gust Franke, the popular assistant engineer; he took aim, "bang" went the gun, and over went the rabbit. Gust rushed to the spot to bring back his prize. It was then that he discovered that he was the cruel victim of a practical joke by the boys. A trunkless rabbit head had been placed there, and that it was that received the charge of shot. The rest of the employes were all in on the joke, and had a great laugh on Gust.

MONROEVILLE.

Teachers' Institute to Be Held There —Local and Personal News.

The Monroeville public schools will have a two weeks' vacation during the holidays.

H. C. Davis has opened a grocery store at the corner of Main and South streets. Mr. Davis has for the last eight years been a clerk in Corbaley & Freeze's dry goods and grocery house.

Last Friday evening the residence of John Long, situated west of here, near the Marquardt crossing, burned to the ground, with a portion of the furniture.

Trustee Heffman says that the attendance at the Dixon school has of late been so small that he has taken the matter into consideration of vacating the school next spring. He has the power to do so, as the school is not at its proper place, and the people there have lately found it out. The trustee, however, promises them not to vacate it, providing they send their children regularly to school.

Rev. Bowen, of the Lutheran church at this place, has just completed a very successful protracted meeting at Concord, and now presides at a meeting held at the Marquardt chapel.

A number of our young people attended the I. O. O. F. supper at Maples last Saturday evening.

W. A. Davis, the Noble county lecturer, lectured at the M. E. church last Saturday evening to a very small house.

One of the victims of Mrs. Woodworth's trance powers is living in this city. She was once a bright and intelligent young lady, but now her intellect is clouded and she has lost her reason. She attended Mrs. Woodworth's meetings and this was the result upon her.

Trustee Hoffman, the worthy servant of Monroe township, announces a teachers' institute, to be held Saturday at the Jones school. He is making every effort to make it a success. The place of holding this meeting is an exception to the usual custom, for this is the first meeting of the kind ever held directly within the territory of the trustee's jurisdiction, having always been held in the Monroeville high school building. The program is as follows: Prayer, Rev. D. Martin; music, instrumental, Prof. E. Grimsley; roll call; response; quotation from soldiers or sailors, as Washington, Jackson, Grant and Perry, giving place and circumstances; hints on teaching, I. O. Jones; civics, J. J. Peters; school decoration, (a) with what? (b) when? (c) how? (d) why? Miss May Williard and Luna Buchanan; brokerage, W. H. Winans; music, instrumental, C. Albaugh; language, A. D. Heintzleman; American literature, Miss Emma Peckham; hygiene, L. J. Wellabalm; the recitation, (a) for what purpose (b) how conducted, Rob Aurand; Obstacles in the Way of Success, Miss Addie Griffith. Time will be granted for discussion of each subject, at which all those present are at liberty to participate. A basket dinner will be the chief feature of the noon recess.

"Jack the Hugger" Not Dangerous.

(Columbia City Post.)

Fort Wayne ladies are greatly annoyed by "Jack the Hugger." So far all efforts of the police force to apprehend this mysterious individual have failed. He doesn't seem to be at all dangerous, but Fort Wayne women, it seems, object to being hugged upon the public streets.

ENCYCLO ÆDIA BRITANNICA!

Do you never, when you have a spare half hour, long for something good to read? Something interesting, but not trashy? Something that shall be always ready to your hand and not force you to spend your precious minutes hunting it up? We offer you a collection of just that kind of literature.

Do you never, in your family, feel the urgent need of some reliable and standard work of reference to which you can turn with confidence when some discussion arises, or when information is needed on some special subject? We are prepared to fill that want for you, too.

Not to keep you in suspense, we propose to furnish you

BRITANNICA

AND A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION TO

OR FORT WAYNE SENTINEL

ON EIGHT MONTH'S TIME

For $10 Down and $2.50 a Month for Eight Months, $30 in all.

THE AMERICANIZED ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA is published in ten large, Illustrated and Handsomely Bound Volumes of nearly 14 000 columns and over 8,000,000 words.

Ever hear of the Encyclopædia Britannica? Probably. If not, any literary man or librarian will tell you that it is universally accepted as the standard encyclopædia in the English language. It ought to be. It was originally published in 1771 and since that time has passed through nine editions the latest of which was compiled fifteen years ago. In its lifetime of a hundred years and more it has gathered to itself the choicest work of the best writers of each successive generation sparing no expense to secure from every expert in every department of human knowledge the best he was capable of giving. On the preparation of its various editions it has spent more than three millions sterling, and the cost of the latest, or ninth, edition alone was not less than ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

But the Encyclopædia Britannica has three defects which detract from its usefulness in an American family. In the first place, part of its latest edition is now fifteen years—or half a generation—behind the age. In the next place it makes no biographical mention of any persons who were living when it was compiled, no matter how famous they may have been; General Grant, even, is left out. And lastly, the Encyclopædia Britannica is an English work, compiled for the use of Englishmen in England, and, as is only natural under such circumstances, it treats all subjects of peculiarly English interest exhaustively and those of purely American interest with far less than the subject warrants. Three pages to an English county and a column or less to an American state is about the proportion.

A Physicians Advice.

I suffered for years
Tried other remedies,
and got no relief.
My Physician prescribed S. S. S.
I increased in flesh;
My appetite improved;
I gained strength;
Was made young again;
It is the best medicine I know of.

SMALL SNOW FLAKES.

As They Fell in the Shape of News Around the City's Busy Centers.

Mrs. Frank Sauerwein, of East Lewis street, is sick.

The Wabash pay car arrived in the city this morning at 9:45.

M. Bruner, janitor in the Pittsburg round house wash room, is sick.

J. Crawford, of the Bass boiler shop, is absent from duty on account of sickness.

F. Irvin has accepted a position as brakeman on the eastern division of the Pittsburg road.

Wm. Connors, of the Olds wagon works, is confined to his home on account of illness.

Engines 186 and 124 have been turned out of the Pittsburg shop after a general overhauling.

T. J. Leeper, engineer on the Pittsburg road, has become a member of the relief department.

Gust Grosh, of the Wabash machine shop, is absent from duty on account of the death of his brother.

Mr. McGrady has accepted a position as brakeman on the Stony Island division of the Nickel Plate road.

H. E. Killen, of the electric department of the Pittsburg shops, has returned from a trip to Chicago.

Frank Warner, of the Pittsburg machine shop, is the proud father of a baby girl, which arrived at his home on Tuesday morning.

Engineer Wm. Stuart, of the Pittsburg road, and Fireman T. Fleming, of the Grand Rapids road, are off duty on account of illness.

Ed. Klinedinst, the popular young fireman on the Pittsburg road, is moving into his handsome new residence on East Washington street.

Sidney Lett, fireman on the Pittsburg road, will soon leave for a visit with his parents at Altoona, Pa. He will remain during the holidays.

The Car-service association of Toledo on Monday ceased delivering freight until all freight and demurrage charges are paid. This action is likely to bring the right of railroads to enforce such a regulation before the courts, as in Illinois it has recently been decided that a road could not legally withhold freight, even if the consignee owed demurrage charges.

Louis Witte, of the car wheel department of the Bass works, is unable to be on duty, on account of sickness.

James Fry, clerk in the Pittsburg store-room office, will leave to-morrow to spend the holidays with his parents at Delphi, Ind.

Chas. McElfatrick has accepted a position in the machine department of the Bass works. He was for a number of years employed as machinist in the Pittsburg shops.

Frank Wright, who for several years has been employed as engineer on the Pittsburg road, has left for east Buffalo, N. Y., to accept a similar position on the West Shore road.

General Manager J. R. Wood, of the Pennsylvania lines, was in the city last evening. He arrived in his special car attached to limited passenger train No. 9, and returned on No. 8.

E. Truesdale and W. K. Wilder, firemen on the Pittsburg road, are absent from their post of duty on account of sickness, and Firemen C. A. Prince, R. C. Chase and D. L. Mason, have reported after a few days illness.

The electric light works have shipped a 600 incandescent light plant to San Francisco, Cal., a sixty Wood arc light to Peconee, Wis., and a 100 incandescent light plant to Cincinnati, O.

The Clover Leaf road continues to make increased showings in the volume of business done. A great deal of substantial improvement has been made to the track within the past few months and the road is handling an immense business.

John Harvey yesterday began his thirty-second year as baggage-master on the Pennsylvania lines. He is now running on the Chicago division. Mr. Harvey claims to be the oldest in that branch of any man in the United States. It is said that he has been offered promotion, but preferred to remain where he is.

Geo. H. Newell, who has been the efficient clerk for two or three years at the office of General Foreman McClure, of the Wabash at the Andrews yards, has resigned, and last week removed with his family to Kokomo. He will have the position of assistant bookkeeper in the Citizens bank of that city. Mr. Newell is an excellent young man, thoroughly capable, and the bank has made an excellent selection.

All the Toledo telegraphers on the Lake Shore railroad have withdrawn from the Order of Railway Telegraphers. It seems that not long since W. M. Kline, superintendent of telegraphers on the line asked if they belonged to the order. To those who replied in the affirmative he addressed a communication requesting that they withdraw from the organization or send in their resignation to the road. The result is that not desiring to lose their position the operators have withdrawn from the order.

Frank Farrey, of the machine department of the Wabash shops, is doing honors over the arrival of twin babies to brighten his home. Frank's noble countenance is now illuminated with a lengthy smile.

Hugh Benigin has resigned his position in the moulding rooms of the Bass works, and will leave to accept a similar [illegible] out of the city. He was connected with the works for twenty-five years.

Michael Kinney, a laborer in the Pittsburg car shop, is confined to his home, 123 West DeWald street, by an injury to his right foot from having a piece of timber fall upon the member. The bones of the foot and toes were broken.

George Huff, watchman at the Calhoun street crossing of the Nickel Plate road, has resumed his duties after a few days' illness, and Daniel Donahoe, who was performing the duties during his absence, has resumed his duties in the Nickel Plate yard.

If Your House is on Fire

You put water on the burning timbers, not on the smoke. And if you have catarrh you should attack the disease in the blood, not in your nose. Remove the impure cause, and the local effect subsides. To do this, take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, which radically and permanently cures catarrh. It also strengthens the nerves. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Ex-Vice President Hannibal Hamlin is fond of dancing, but his dislike of music amounts to almost hatred.

The Adelbert college glee and banjo club has been engaged by the members of the Electric club and will give an entertainment in their hall on the evening of December 29. This club stands in the front rank of college organizations. They give a well rendered and highly artistic concert, consisting of vocal and instrumental music. The program, though made up principally of college boys music, includes also compositions of a more classic tone, affording a very enjoyable evening's entertainment.

An Equivalent for Suicide.

If we allow our bodily infirmities to make away with us through neglect, have we such an immense moral advantage over the deliberate suicide? Scarcely. For example, the deadly progress of Bright's disease, diabetes, acute nephritis and gravel is sure—often terribly swift in the catastrophe. Most people of average information know that this is the simple, unvarnished truth in regard to those widely prevalent maladies. To delay judicious medication is especially suicidal in such cases. The means of restraint is to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Give an impetus to the action of the kidneys with this safe and reliable diuretic, and the intial complaint is shorn at its birth of the power for evil. Allow it to grow, and anticipate the worst. The Bitters, which annihilates these growing troubles, also eradicates dyspepsia, rheumatism, malarial and liver complaints. Appetite, sleep and vigor are also promoted by it.

HERE IT IS.

The famous neverslip horse shoe has gained the day and can be found in our city.

Some of the main advantages which have commended it to popular favor, may be summarized as follows:

1. It never slips in any direction.
2. The horse soon learns this fact, and consequently, whether pulling or trotting will always do his best.
3. It saves the horse from sprains and bruises which constantly result from insecure footing.
4. It avoids too injury to the horse's feet caused by a too frequent resetting of the shoes.
5. It greatly lessens the danger of injury from calking.
6. It saves the time, both of the horse and owner, as the insertion of new and sharp Calks is the work of only a few minutes.
7. Its use facilitates all kinds of business. Livery keepers, stage and express proprietors, horse railroad companies, market men, milk peddlers, teamsters, doctors, and all whose horses are in constant requisition, are enabled by the use of this shoe to meet their engagements promptly, however slippery the traveling may be.

Owing to the great demand for this shoe, Mr. Wm. Geary, the horse shoer, has secured the agency for Fort Wayne.

The reputation of Mr. Geary, the horse shoer, is second to none in the city, and his endorsement of the shoe, gurantees satisfaction. Call on him at

WANTED—The people who purchased lots in Lakeside, when they were first put upon the market, can now sell their lots at an advance in price that would show an annual interest on the amount invested of from fifty to eighty per cent. The timid, the unprogressive and the suspicious didn't keep up with the procession and so were "left" as they deserved to be. Fort Wayne is going rapidly to the front of Indiana cities, and the unreasonably low prices at which real estate is selling cannot long continue. The advance will nowhere be so rapid as in beautiful Lakeside. 5-tf

LOCAL NEWS.

Christmas trees are already in demand.

Mrs. Krudop, of West Jefferson street, is ill.

Mrs. Hoover, of Huntington, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Adelia McMahon, of East Wayne street, is critically ill.

N. N. Purman has received an increase of his army pension.

Peter Martin, a lime dealer of Huntington, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Hattie Bennett, of Bluffton, is in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. H. Barcus.

The merchants were prepared for the pay days which occurred yesterday and last evening did a fair business.

The new houses in Lakeside now number twenty-six and twice as many more will be erected next season.

It is said that a leading Calhoun street dry goods establishment may double the size of its store next year.

Yesterday was the last day of the December sitting of the county commissioners. They will have no special meetings until some time next week.

Miss Helen Heller, daughter of Mahlon D. Heller, entertained a large number of young people at her home corner Cass and Third streets, in a pleasant manner last evening.

Mr. Slattery has made a handsome wager with a friend that he will have a street car equipped with his new storage battery in operation in Fort Wayne by the end of the year.

Clarence Cook, city editor of THE SENTINEL, who has been confined to his home by illness since last Sunday, will resume his position to-morrow. Our readers have no doubt missed his newsy pencilings.

Tom Baxter, Gust Franke and Frank Iten the city water works inspector, were out in Madison township rabbit hunting on Tuesday. Result: one rabbit; and those who seen it believe it was some one's pet.

John F. Niezer, of Monroeville, who went to Mt. Clemens, Mich., about five weeks ago to take treatment for various forms of rheumatism, will arrive in the city this evening over the Wabash, much improved in health.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says: "John I. White and D. N. Foster, business men of Fort Wayne, are at the Grand. Mr. White is connected with the Bass wheel works, the largest concern of its kind in the world."

The Bluffton Bugle says: "Maurice Edris is a Fort Wayne visitor until to-morrow.—Asbury Duglay and little son spent the day in Allen county's metropolis.—Mrs. Alice Hixon was at Fort Wayne to-day, visiting friends."

Samuel Henderson, foreman of the Pittsburg copper shop, celebrated his natal day yesterday. He would not disclose to THE SENTINEL reporter just what number it was, but assured him it was less than the last one celebrated by Colonel Fred Drake, who is remembered by the "oldest inhabitant."

Prof. M. N. Plumadore, the well known instructor on the violin in the Fort Wayne Conservatory of Music, will be married on the evening of December 24th, to Miss Carrie Koontz, at the home of the bride's parents in Camden, Carrol county. Miss Koontz graduated at the conservatory and is now a teacher there.

The citizens of Huntington who are consumers of natural gas, had an unpleasant experience on Tuesday night. The regulator on the outskirts of the city refused to do its work, and the supply of gas was shut off. It was 8 o'clock Wednesday morning before all patrons could be noitfied, and the gas turned on again.

A delightful party was given by the Misses Smith, at their home on Butler street, Friday evening, in honor of Miss Marvin, of Buffalo. Among those present were the Misses Gilbert and Mantell, of Buffalo; Misses Edwards, Royce, Rhodaheaver, Michaels, and Messrs. Keller, Barnes, Stapleford, Mann, Klotz and Frank.

The sportingmen of Indianapolis have arranged for a mill between Dan Jordan, the local colored pugilist, and "Red" Hennessy, to spar with four-ounce gloves, twenty-five days from December 20. The fight is for $200 a side, and is to be within twenty miles of Indianapolis. J. W. Johnson, Jordan's backer, and Tommy Miller, who is backing Hennessy, each put up $50 forfeit. The articles of agreement have been signed.

W. W. Whitney sues John G. Lehr for $500 on notes.

Miss Lizzie Reidmiller will leave Saturday for Logansport.

Wm. McLaughlin, left last evening for a trip to Duluth, Minn.

A baby daughter has come to make happy the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Nogle.

The ladies of the English Lutheran church had a pleasant social and supper last night.

Miss Daisy Simonson is visiting at Ashland, Wis. She will be absent for several weeks.

An interesting entertainment will be given this evening at the First Presbyterian church.

Mesdames C. L. and H. E. Drummond went to Huntington to-day to spend the holidays.

Thomas Stewart, of the Boston store, is being visited by his sister, Mrs. Coull, of Scotland.

Mrs. Catherine O'Connell, of 259 Webster street, left last evening for a visit at Pine Bluff, Arkansas.

The pay days this week and the approaching holidays makes business very good among our city merchants.

The year will come to an end and not witness the building of the new Mahoning railroad about which so much has been said and written.

Mrs. H. O'Connell, of 259 Webster street, left this morning for Riverside, Col., for her health. Her son Ed. and her daughter Frankie accompanied her as far as Chicago.

The case of Max Kowinski against George and Mary Ohneck is on trial in the supreme court to-day. The plaintiff sues for a commission of $300 for selling real estate for the defendants.

O. E. Mohler went to Huntington yesterday to see his father, who had the misfortune to fall and dislocate his hip. As the senior Mohler is sixty-nine years old, his injuries are quite serious.

Next Sunday at the Tabernacle of the People Pastor Northrop will preach an appropriate sermon to the hundreds of couples he has joined in holy wedlock the past eight or nine years. The friends of the same are also kindly urged to come. It will be a unique and interesting service. One and all are welcome.

The Balmoral choir, which comes to the Temple to morrow night, is one of the best musical organizations in the world and those who fail to attend will miss a grand treat. It embraces the very highest cultured singers and their sweet melodies will charm the audience. The tickets for this entertainment are selling very rapidly.

The "Clemenceau Case" will be presented at the Temple Saturday evening. While "The Clemenceau Case" is Frenchy, yet there have been many plays produced without adverse criticism in which the objectionable side of the inner life of immoral women has been portrayed. Like all works which eminate from the pen of Dumas, the piece is full of situations of great dramatic force and calling for good acting.

The Columbia City Post says: "Mr. Albert Bush, a well-known teacher of Jefferson township, this county, is now located in Fort Wayne in the grocery business. The people of Fort Wayne will find Mr. Bush to be a straight forward and honorable gentlemen in every respect. The Post wishes him the greatest measure of success in his new business enterprise.—Sheriff McNabb was in Fort Wayne last week and saw the notorious Kuhns. He thinks he met Kuhns last summer at the Farmer's alliance picnic at Shriner's lake."

Yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Charity Wilkinson, of 225 East Wayne street, received a telegram that her son, John N. Wilkinson, of Valparaiso, was quite sick. She reported this information to her son Deputy Sheriff Tom Wilkinson, who left immediately for his brothers bed side. Later another dispatch was received saying he was much worse, and Justice of the Peace James Wilkinson and his mother, also took a train for Valparaiso to attend him. He has three sisters living here, who are Mrs. Thomas Morton, of 302 East Wayne street, and Mrs. Arney and Miss Minnie, who live with their mother at 225 East Wayne street. Mr. Wilkinson suffers from gall stones in the bladder. He is a dealer in agricultural implements and is township trustee.

Rev. Dr. Moffat is reported as better to day.

The justice courts were devoid of news to day.

TURNING WHITE.

Gradual Transformation of the Color of the Skin of a Man at Springfield.

SPRINGFIED, Ohio, Dec. 18.—[Special.]—Mr. James Wilson is a young colored man thirty five years of age. Some ten months ago a slight discoloration of the skin was noticed on the neck Since then the circles of discoloration, inside of which the skin is white, have largely increased, until they cover nearly half the body, giving him the appearance of being half white and half colored. A physician of the city, who has been noting the phenomena, states that the man will be all white inside of two years. He is a wonderful curiosity.

PAYS THE PENALTY.

Wife Murderer Day Fills the Ends of Justice by Meeting Death on the Gallows.

WELLAND, Ont., Dec. 18.—Arthur Hoyt Day, the Rochester wife murderer, was hanged at 8 o'clock this morning. The condemned man spent his last night on earth in writing letters to his relatives and singing gospel hymns, his favorite selection being "Scatter Seeds of Kindness," and "On the Way from Earth to Heaven I will guide Thee with Mine Eye." There was a tremor in his voice as he sang, and so far as his stunted moral nature would allow he was deeply affected. He did not stop more than half an hour all night. The letters which he sent to his brothers contained affectionate greetings and an exhortation to lead a better life. Up to the last he passionately blamed his sister, who, he claimed, was the one who planned the visit from Rochester to the river. He would not admit having actually pushed his wife over the bank, but his denial was not emphatic and it is generally believed that he carried out to the letter the arrangements which his sister enabled him to arrive at. Rev. Mr. McCuing left him at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and returned at 4 o'clock this morning. He and the condemed man then engaged in earnest prayer and the latter listened and took part with evident sincerity. At 7 o'clock he resumed the singing of hymns. His rough uncultured voice sounded almost sweet with added pathos and feeling. Breakfast was then served, and consisted of coffee, toast, broiled chicken and oysters. The death warrant was then read to the condemned man, and the procession to the scaffold began. Day walked calmly out to the rude structure from which he was to be launched into eternity. There was no delay or hitch of any kind. Promptly at 8 o'clock, or perhaps a moment or two before, the minister said the last consoling words.

Day was placed directly in the center of the scaffold. He bore himself with composure and to all outward appearance was the least affected, and most jaunty of those assembled. After calmly surveying the crowd of spectators, which numbered several hundred, he shook hands in turn with the jailor, sheriff and minister, and simply said good bye. The hangman quickly adjusted the strap to his legs, the black cap was pulled down and the fatal noose adjusted. Rev. Mr. McCuing offered the Lord's prayer and as the words "Deliver us from evil" were uttered at a sign from the sheriff, the hangman pulled the cord and the great weight dropped, jerking the wretched victim six or seven feet into the air. He came down with another great jerk and after a few spasmodic convulsions, lasting only a minute and a half, the body hung motionless in the air. After twenty minutes had elapsed the body was cut down and the doctors after a brief examination declared the neck unbroken and that death was produced by strangulation.

The crime was committed on Sunday, July 27, last. Six years ago he married Desire Chatterton. Their married life does not appear to have been very pleasant, and on July 12 last, Day married Mary E. Breen at Canadaigula, under the name of Arthur Hoyt. He brought her to Rochester and lived with her. On July 27, Day took wife No. 1 and his sister, Mrs. Quigley, to Niagara Falls. They crossed to the Canadian side and proceeded on their walk along the bank in the direction of the whirlpool. Mrs. Quigley sat down to rest and Day and his wife continued their walk. The last Mrs. Quigley saw of them they were standing close to the edge of the high river bank. When she looked again, Mrs. Day had disappeared. Day returned and told his sister he had pushed his wife over the bank and that he wanted to be rid of her. Day and his sister then returned to Rochester, and the body of the murdered wife was not found until two weeks later.

THE TRUSTS AT WORK.

The Champion Harvesting Company Wants All Agents to Resign.

FORT DODGE, Iowa, Dec. 18.—Every local agent of the Champion Harvesting company in this territory has been requested by the company to forward their resignations at once. The reason given for this wholesale decapitation is that the American Harvesting company, the new trust, will hereafter transact all the business of the company. To some of the older and most trusted agents it was thought that the trust might insure them situations shortly. As this course was followed by other companies of the company, hundreds of men will be thrown out of situations in this territory.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The severe storm central yesterday along the Virginia coast has moved northeastward to Nova Scotia. The winds on the Atlantic coast have shifted to northeastern or west, and will continue high during the day. The weather will clear during the day in the middle Atlantic states, and in the New England States during the night. The conditions are favorable for fair weather in all districts east of the Mississippi during Friday.

For Indiana: Fair, northwesterly winds; slightly colder.

UNITED IRELAND

Comes Out Strong for Parnell's Kilkenny Candidate.

DUBLIN, Dec. 18.—United Ireland takes strong grounds to-day for the Parnell candidate in Kilkenny. The paper says that the election virtually involves the national existence of Ireland; that the maintenance of a central idea of nationalhood depends upon freedom from alien dictation; that Mr. Gladstone's pretensions to control the decision of the Irish people have been and would have been repudiated had the Irish leaders acted with due respect to themselves and to their countrymen as men of spirit and sound patriotic judgment would have acted. The attempt to degrade Parnell was the result of a conspiracy which has been hatching for years, awaiting an opportunity for the conspirators to seize upon. Personal hatred, vanity and envy were the motives which actuated some of the conspirators and others had even baser reasons. Healy's putrid scurility, Tanner's debauched ruffianism and Davitt's rancorous jealousy, are significant.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The Telegraph's Kilkenny dispatch says, that the missile which struck Mr. Parnell, was a paper bag filled with slaked lime or plaster of paris. It was deliberately thrown at Parnell from a distance of six feet. The darkness made it impossible to detect the culprit.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The Standard expresses doubt as to the advisability of Mr. Chamberlain's scheme for the formation of a new party. The facts, it says, are tending to call into existence a nation of unionists and conservatives.

KILKENNY, Dec. 18.—Mr. Parnell, with his eyes still bandaged, to-day entered a closed carriage and started to attend a meeting in the interest of Mr. Vincent Scully, his candidate for the house of commons from North Kilkenny which was to be held at Goersbridge and Gowran. Before he had proceeded far on his journey the carriage collapsed, and it was found necessary to procure another conveyance. Entering Goersbridge, Mr. Parnell alighted, and with his head elaborately swathed in laces of lint and ostentatiously guided by his colleagues, appeared in the midst of his followers with fine dramatic effect. The appearance of the Irish leader as his friends slowly led him up to the platform and turned his veiled face toward the sympathetic Irishmen who sat far in front of him, was one well calculated to stir the depths of their enthusiastic natures. That it accomplished its purpose was speedily made evident in the cheers which went up for Parnell, and the maledictions hurled at his enemies. The feeling of bitterness grows with every hour, and, by their respective followers, Mr. Parnell and Mr. Davitt are held up to view as martyrs for the cause of Ireland.

KILKENNY, Dec. 18.—In the city corporation to-day, an attempt was made to pass resolutions endorsing Sir John Pope Hennessey, candidate of anti-Parnellites for election to the house of commons from North Kilkenny. The Parnellite members immediately objected, whereupon an upoar ensued and words other than polite and challenges to fight were bandied about the chamber.

In the midst of the tumult the mayor arose from his seat as presiding officer, and followed by the friends of Sir John Pope Hennessey, and the execrations and derision of the Parnellite city fathers, left the building. The Parnellites then elected a chairman and promptly adopted resolutions expressing unchanged confidence in Mr. Parnell.

COAL MINERS AND OPERATORS

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 18.—A joint meeting of the coal miners and operators of the state was held here yesterday to discuss grievances. The meeting is composed of committees from the miners and operators, each committee composed of seven members. There were a large number of grievances to be considered and the session lasted from an early part of the afternoon until a late hour. The board decided that the miners at Clinton shall have extra pay for working in mines which contain water. In most of the other cases the board decided that it had no jurisdiction.

"A SON IS BORN."

BERLIN, Dec. 18.—The empress gave birth to a son, last night, while the emporer was at the opera house. A runner was at once sent to his majesty, who hastened to the palace. The manager of the opera house announced the event to the audience, who made the theater sound with cheers for the emperor and empress. The audience stood up and joined in singing the national hymn, which was played by the band.

THEIR BLOOD IS UP!

The Hostil Indians at Work and Engage in a Couple of Battles With Soldiers.

DENVER, Dec. 18.—A dispatch from Rapid City, timed 3:30 a. m., says: "A courier just in has aroused the camp. He brings the tidings that fifteen men are besieged by the Indians on Spring Creek at Dalley's ranch. Three attempts have been made by the hostiles to fire the ranch, one of which was nearly successful. One of the men is the Hon. H. M. Day, aid de camp to the governor of the state. The courier had to fight his way through, the Indians firing both right and left. General Carr has sent Major Tupper with 100 men to the rescue and if the Indians are encountered by the major and his force, short work will be made of them as Major Tupper is determed."

A special from the camp of the Sixth cavalry, on the Cheyenne river, via Rapid City, says: "The troops here were joined early this morning by Major Perry's command. Scout H. Craven reports that a large number of Indians were seen in a small creek near Smithville, in the brakes. Shots were exchanged. While some of the government wagons were crossing Spring Creek, they and their escort were attacked by about forty Indians, and over 100 shots exchanged. One soldier was wounded, and another shot through the hat. A troop of Captain Wells' cavalry came to their rescue, but the Indians, seeing which, ran away. Mr. Cravens states that he saw sixty-three tepees, which contained about 200 Indians. They were camped near the mouth of Spring Creek early this morning, and troops were sent out, but the hostiles had again returned to the Bad Lands. General Carr sent last night and to-night, armed parties to guard the ranch where the Indian was killed yesterday. The dead Indian is laid out in front of the ranch, with his rifle beside him to act as a bait to attract other Indians to capture the body. All day a number of Indians, who did not care to approach, have been about. The dead Indian is a nephew of Kicking Bear. General Carr sent a troop of cavalry yesterday up into the Bad Lands to watch the movements of the hostiles. A signal was established by which the troop was to be reinforced in case there was an attack. They reported about seventy tepees being seen in the Indian stronghold and totally inaccessible. The only known outlet of escape for these Indians is a trail which goes up Cottonwood across the route from Rapid Creek to Wounded Knee, crossing Cottonwood before it crosses Bad Water to near the high space occupied by the hostiles. This pass will be closed to-morrow, by a large body of troops of the sixth infantry.

A BOY SUICIDES.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Fred C. Martell, a boy sixteen years old, who was employed in the office of F. A. Woodbury, attorney, committed suicide last night by shooting himself. The deed was done in the office of his employer, and the boy's body was found stiff and cold this morning. The boy's body, entirely divested of clothing, was stretched in the middle of the floor. There was a bullet-hole, from which the blood had flowed profusely, in the center of the breast, and the bullet had gone entirely through the body. In a pigeon-hole of the boy's desk was found a note, in which the boy said that in case the shot was not fatal and he lived any length of time, he wanted Miss Ida McLean, of the Balden avenue Presbyterian church, called to act as his nurse. The suicide seems to have been prompted by a mixture of religion, love and unhappiness at home. His mother was divorced some time ago, and married a man between whom and the son there was a pronounced dislike and the bitter feeling between them preyed upon the boy's mind.

WHITE BUFFALO

PIERRE, S. D., Dec. 18.—White Buffalo, son of Sitting Bull, who lives among the Two Kettle Sioux, on Bad river, came to the city yesterday and learned of his father's death. He is an intelligent Indian and has taken no part in the Messiah business. An interpreter learned from him that he had long expected his father to be killed and he had no sympathy with the course Sitting Bull had always pursued. He said Sitting Bull had always acted cruelly towards his children, which was the cause of White Buffalo leaving and going to live with more civilized tribes. He wanted to see all the hostiles disarmed, or served as his father had been.

They Must Hang.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 18.—Governor Campbell announced last night that he would not interfere in the cases of Isaac Smith, Henry Popp and Elmore Sharkey, condemned murderers, sentenced to be hanged at the Ohio penitentiary. There will be a triple hanging soon after the hour of midnight. Smith has been reprieved six times, twice by Governor Foraker and four times by Governor Campbell.

STORM ECHOES.

Much Damage Done Throughout New York and Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—The railroad which runs from Cape May over to Anglesea, N. J., has been washed away for a distance of three and one-half miles, the track being piled up against the telegraph poles. Communication with Anglesea can only be held by means of boats. At Sea Isle City considerable damage was done. The railroad from that point to Ocean City, which runs along the beach, was badly damaged, as is also the road to Avenlon. Washouts are numerous and it will be several weeks before communication with these points is fully restored. The bridges across the Townsend inlet and the Corsons inlet are reported damaged.

At Reading, Pa., a chimney was blown over and Miss Ella Grath was struck by the fragments and probably fatally injured.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 18.—A snow, sleet, rain and wind storm of considerable severity prevailed in this city all day yesterday. The slush was about four inches deep, making it difficult for pedestrians to get about. Traffic of all kind was partially suspended.

A BUILDING COLLAPSES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—At 2 o'clock this morning, the high wind blew down the wall of Schaffer & Co., on Park avenue, between Fifty and Fifty-first streets. No one was hurt. The firm estimate the loss at about $10,000. The wall was the front end of the malt house, in which was stored at least 200,000 bushels of barley which went down with the wreck. At 9 o'clock last night the wall was noticed to be bulging and police were detailed to prevent anyone going near it, and when at 2 o'clock the wall collapsed, there was no one near it, but the watchful policemen. Some members of the firm are of the opinion that the wreck was caused, not alone by the high wind, but by the overweight of the barley in the malt house.

HEAVY FAILURES.

They Occur at Numerous Points—Losses Will Reach Millions.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 18.—Owen Bros., agents of the Atlantic mills, have made an assignment to Charles H. Merriam. Liabilities are large, but the mills will continue as usual under the management of Stephen O. Metcalf. The assignee refuses to give any figures. The amount, which is no doubt about half a million dollars, is confined to a few local debtors who will be able to stand the loss.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Sulzbach, Weinge & Roker, silk manufacturers at College Point, yesterday confessed judgment for $58,880 in favor of Wm. Oppenheim & Sons, importers, of this city, who have been their commission merchants. It is said the liabilities are about $150,000, and nominal assets in excess of that amount.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—S. A. Kern, the banker whose failure was announced late last evening, made an assignment this morning. The assets and liabilities are not yet known.

KEOKUK, Ia., Dec. 18.—Collus, Robertson & Hambleton, who gave a mortgage on their wholesale grocery stock and building a few days ago, yesterday made an assignment to James W. Hummers, of the state bank. The schedule of liabilities amounts to over $184,000. Assets less than one-half of this amount.

ROME, Ga., Dec. 18.—McGhee & Co., grocers and cotton factors, have closed their doors. Assets $175,000; liabilities, $150,000.

HOOSIER RUFFIAN.

He Assaults His Grand-Parents and is Lodged Behind the Bars.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Dec. 18.—Lincoln Gossett, the rascal who assaulted the old couple, Asa Warnock and wife, at Honey Creek, last Friday night, is in jail here, having made a confession, and will be sentenced. He is a grandson of the old people, and was recognized by the old lady while at his work. She informed his father, who is a United Brethren minister, and he began to hunt the matter down. Yesterday he confronted the young man at Elwood, where he was working, with the evidence at hand, and the latter broke down and confessed the crime. He had become heavily involved at Elwood, and knowing that the old people had money, walked all the way to their house—a distance of forty miles—only to get $2. The father brought him here and turned him over to the authorities. Young Gossett is twenty-five years old and has hitherto borne a good reputation. He confesses that this is the third time he has tried to rob the old people.

Chicago Markets.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Wheat: Dec., 91; May, $1.00. Corn: May, 53½. Oats: May, 45½. Pork: Jan., $10.05; May, $11.07½. Lard: Jan., $5.77½; May, $6.37. Ribs: Jan., $5.00; May, $5.62½.

Saturday night last a special train over the Wabash road made the run from Kansas City to Chicago, 512 miles, in twelve hours and forty-five minutes.

JACK THE HUGGER.

The Villain Who Has Dodged Our Officers for so Long is Caught at Last.

THE SENTINEL is able to-day to chronicle the arrest of Jack, the Hugger, the despicable villain who for a week or more has terrified the ladies of this city by his bold, rude and outrageous acts.

The above paragraph will be news to even the police officers of this city, who have been on the hunt for the fellow, but whom he has successfuly evaded, to be caught at last in one of the cities of the western states.

His career in this city is well known. He was given the names of "Jack, the Kisser" and "Jack, the Hugger," and created a sensation by stopping ladies and girls on the street, generally in the evening, and making attempts to embrace and kiss them, in many of which he was successful.

His acts became so bold and so oft repeated that a vigilance committee to hunt the villain was even talked of. He seemed to be everywhere and nowhere. One person would describe him in a certain manner and others would give an entirely different description of the rascal. The police would hear of him often, but were unable to catch a sight of him and his acts became so numerous that many ladies desisted from going out on the streets at night alone for fear of being assaulted by the scoundrel. Hence the news of his capture will be read by all with a feeling of gratification.

None of his acts have been heard of in this city since last Sunday night. Late that evening a fellow, answering the description of Jack was seen to board a freight train on the Pennsylvania road going west. He must have traveled fast, for Tuesday night he was at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he at once commenced the same career that he carried on in this city. He was there yesterday morning. He gave his name as John Harder and claimed to be from New York. He was arrested on the charge of robbing a hen roost. When his pockets were searched a full set of burglars' tools and a revolver were found. He also answered the description of "Jack, the Hugger," which some of the women whom he had embraced gave. He was bound over to await the action of the grand jury.

CLAIMED BY DEATH.

At the home of her mother, Mrs. Joseph G. McMaken, 351 East Wayne street, at 8 o'clock last evening occurred the death of Miss Delia McMaken at the age of thirty-six years, of a complication of diseases. She had been confined as an invalid to her bed for over a year and was a great sufferer. She was a daughter of Mr. Joseph G. McMaken, who located on a farm in St. Joe township, four miles out on the Maysville pike, in 1832, who, at the time of his death some years ago, was well and favorably known throughout the county. Miss McMaken was for a number of years a teacher in the city free schools and was very popular with all her pupils. She was a member of the Berry street Methodist church and the funeral which will be held Sunday will probably occur from there. Rev. D. C. Woolyert, of Warsaw, formerly pastor of that charge, has been asked to conduct the service. When death came to the esteemed lady she was surrounded by her mother and brothers and sisters, who did all in their power to make her closing hours peaceful.

FELL DEAD.

Death Comes to Mr. Vance While in a Fit.

A man named Vance fell dead in the new yards of the Pennsylvania company this morning in a fit. He was a pauper and will be buried at the expense of the county.

The Wabash people are said to be meeting with good success in the securing of the right of way for their new line into Chicago. Securing of the old right of way of the Canada Southern through Steuben county was a big lift for the enterprise.

MET HIS DEATH.

Conductor Gage, Formerly of This City Killed at Cleveland.

Yesterday, at Cleveland, Ohio, Conductor Gage, of the Nickel Plate, was killed by falling between the cars of his train in the yards.

He was formerly in the employ of the Grand Rapids road in this city, but has been with the Nickel Plate for the last few years. He met his death instantly.

THROUGH A BRIDGE.

An Express Train Goes Down With Numerous Passengers Aboard.

SOUTH QUEBEC, Dec. 18.—At 11:55 this morning the west bound Halifax express went through St. Joseph bridge, near Levis. It is reported that some of the passengers were killed, and a number wounded. All the train went through the bridge except the baggage-car.

Spinners' Trouble.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Dec. 18.—Thirty mule spinners and ten back bearers at the Achushnett mills left work yesterday afternoon, and at an open air meeting appointed a committee to wait on the mill authorities. The trouble is said to be the use of poor stock, which reduces wages. If no satisfaction can be obtained the matter will be placed in the hands of local branches of the spinners' union.

LOCAL LINES.

Judge Powers, a popular and prominent democrat, of Angola, was in the city last evening.

The World's museum is giving a good entertainment this week and Geary catches the crowd.

Postmaster Higgins is rushed with Christmas business. Many people are sending holiday presents away.

In the case of Hake against John Schoerpe in the superior court judgment was given the plaintiff for $50.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Renx, No. 125 Summit street, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Manager Geary's evergreen, standing at the corner of Calhoun and Berry streets, attracts a great deal of attention.

The He, She, Him and Her company gave a very good entertainment last evening and went to Adrian, Michigan, this morning.

The Christian church congregation will give an entertainment for the children of the Sabbath school on Christmas eve.

C. P. Sordelet, a traveling salesman for S. F. Bowser & Co., the oil tank manufacturers, has returned from a business trip west.

Indications are that early in next year the Pennsylvania company will begin selling one-thousand-mile tickets at $20 on all lines west of Pittsburg.

John Campine, of Logansport, who committed a murderous assault upon Peter Schmeberger, has been ordered imprisoned for nineteen month.

Louis Hellbronner, who is considerable of a sporting man, has a game fighting cock which he is anxious to match against any bird in the city for a purse.

The Euphonia club met Tuesday evening at the home of the Misses Lillie and Clara Linderman. Music, singing and dancing made the hours pass in a very agreeable manner.

Marriage licenses were issued to Henry C. Hoeltze and Sophia L. W. Schroeder; Samuel Souder and Sarah Dailey; Solah S. Hartman and Mahala Palmer; Charles Schmuck and Clara Etchoy.

Dr. W. W. Steele, of Waveland, under arrest at Anderson, charged with being the highwayman, who "held up" a number of persons in Madison county in October last, although he has been identified by several parties, is believed to be innocent, for a number of prominent people at Waveland are ready to make affidavit that he was at home on the night in question. Dr. Steele bears a strong personal resemblance to one Roberts, known as the "Bandit of the Wabash," and the last mentioned person is thought to have committed the robberies complained of.

THE WAYS OF WIES.

When the police court was called to order this morning, with Mayor Harding presiding and Marshal Franke as officer, Jacob Weis was arraigned on the charge of larceny. He was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer O'Ryan on an affidavit charging him with stealing carpenter's tools from Contractor James A. Crow, for whom he occasionally worked, and also from Contractor Clark. Weis is a middle-aged man and has a wife and three children living in the eastern part of the city. At one time he was a sober and industrious carpenter, and had plenty of work to do, but he took to drink, and since then he has been going on the downward road to ruin. At first he only occasionally indulged in the flowing bowl in the evening after work with a few of his boon companions, but stronger and stronger grew the habit upon him until work was neglected, and at last he became almost a total wreck. What wages he earned found their way into the saloonkeeper's till for drink, and he became abusive to his wife and children. Deeper and deeper he sank, and ere long, such were his habits, that he found himself unable to procure work. Money must be had to satisfy the cravings for drink and to obtain it he resorted to theft, stealing tools from his fellow workmen and his employers to obtain it. His last act and the one which has placed him behind prison bars, was the stealing of $35 worth of tools from Contractors Crow and Clark. These he stole a few days ago, and either sold them or pawned them for whisky. When arrested yesterday by Officer O'Ryan, he was quite drunk. He was placed in the cell at the station house, and when arraigned for trial this morning before the Mayor, appeared without an attorney. In answer to the usual question from the Mayor: "What have you to say to the charge against you?" he answered: "I may have took them; but if I did, I was so drunk at the time that I didn't know what I was doing." The testimony of a few witnesses proving him guilty was taken and he was bound over to court in the sum of $400, and being unable to give security he was sent to jail.

Weis was taken before Judge O'Rourke in the circuit court this afternoon. He plead guilty and was sentenced for one year in the penitentiary.

The next criminal to be arraiged before his honor was J. Stanley Cortright, who was arrested on the charge of cruelty to animals. Cortright was ejected from a saloon the other evening on account of his being very drunk and disorderly, and to satisfy his thirst for revenge against somebody or something, commenced beating a horse that was hitched to a post in front. He was arrested and will now languish in jail for thirty days as a result. He gave his name as Carter at the police court this morning, but THE SENTINEL reporter knew better, and although his name goes down on the police and jail records as such, we record it to-day as J. Stanley Cortright. He is a tramp printer and has a sort of an unsavory record, having appeared in the criminal courts of other cities on various occasions. He will serve his time here and then perhaps start out on the road again. If he does not let whisky alone, however, THE SENTINEL will ere long chronicle his entrance to the penitentiary at Michigan City or somewhere else.

The only other prisoner arraigned before the mayor was a man for being drunk and disorderly. He paid his fine and was released.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

By the Allen Building Association and the Organ Company Employes.

The third annual meeting of the German Allen Building, Loan and Savings association was held at the Custer house last night. Officers were elected as follows: President, Henry Zur Muehlen; secretary, Otto Herbst; treasurer, George Motz; directors, August M. Schmidt, John Muehlfeith, Theodore Goller, John Rabus, Wm. Schneider, sr., August Huxoll; auditing committee, A. F. Glutting, C. H. Leinker, Wm. Ranke, Wm. Paul, Aug. M. Schmidt. The association is in a flourishing condition, each share being worth $69.89.

Last evening occurred the annual meeting of the Employes' Benefit association of the Fort Wayne Organ company. The statement of the treasurer showed the association to be in excellent financial standing. It has a paid up membership of sixty-five, and during the past year disbursed $200 in sick dues. The treasury still has a surplus and the future is bright. The following officers were elected: President, Edward French; vice-president, George Haswell; treasurer, H. C. Lehnert; financial secretary, F. N. McGuire; recording secretary, G. S. Williams; trustees, M. Kimmel, J. Kimmel and J. Selkman; inner guard, J. Ryan.

The county commissioners finished allowing bills for the present term yesterday.

THE bond of Secretary of State Claude Matthews has been filed. It is for $10,000 and the sureties are Josephus Collett, Judge Joshua Jump, Louis B Martin and Leslie D. Thomas. He will take his office some time the latter part of next month.

THE members of the Columbus club gave a complimentary dinner to Allen G. Thurman and his wife at the club rooms last night. With the exception of Ex-Governor Foster, all the invited guests were residents of that city. Col, E. L. Taylor was toastmaster and speeches were made by Judge Thurman, Governor Campbell and others, The affair was purely local in character.

WILLIAM H. FOULKE, of Richmond, Indiana, the newly appointed president of Swarthmore college, in a lecture at Philadelphia the other evening said: "One great drawback and source of danger to our country is having so many millionaires in the United States senate, and another is our method of electing a president. The president of the United States or any other republic should be elected by the popular vote and not by any college of voters."

AT a meeting in Jacksonville, Fla., last night, attended by General Master Workman Powderly and John Davis, member elect of congress from Kansas, on behalf of the Knights of Labor; President Polk, National Lecturer Willets, of Kansas, member of the executive board, Wardall, of North Dakota, and others of the farmers' alliance, it was decided to have no convention at Cincinnati, February 23, as had been arranged. It was decided that in its stead a conference of committees of five from each of the organizations represented should be held some time in February, which should go over the ground carefully and without taking formal action practically decide which course of action should be pursued. This is a decided victory for the conservative element among the third party men.

SOME member of the Indiana legislature who desires to immortalize himself and confer an unmeasurable blessing upon the people of this commonwealth should, at the next session, introduce a measure to impose a tax on cats. Three-fourths of those who read the above sentence, if they are owners of cats, will hold up their hands in holy horror that THE SENTINEL should advocate such a measure. Well, why not? There is a tax on dogs. He is a noble, faithful animal and man's true friend. Why should the cat go on the free list and the dog be made to pay a certain amount every year for the privilege of living? It is true he sometimes barks at night and occasionally you find one that kills sheep, but the majority of them deserve more consideration at the hands of legislators than the cats. They don't sit on back yard fences on moonlight nights and utter unearthly yells—yells that are worse than those given by Comanche warriors and which arouse the neighborhood from their slumbers. Cats do this and if for the purpose of abating the nuisance, and saving boot-jacks and fire-wood, the legislature could impose a tax on cats, would it not be an act of justice to the dogs?

M'BRIDE MADE JUDGE.

By one of those freaks of fortune which make and unmake men, Robert W. McBride, of Elkhart county, is now in the seat on the supreme court bench which his late successful competitor, Judge Joseph A. S. Mitchell, occupied, whose sudden death at Goshen a few days ago will be recalled. It was generally supposed that the governor would fill the vacancy by appointing Judge McBride, who was the republican nominee for supreme court justice against Judge Mitchell in the late campaign. There were four other candidates, but inside republican ranks it was felt that there was a special fitness, in a party sense at least, in the candidacy of Judge McBride. The hope was entertained by some citizens that the governor would appoint a democrat to fill Judge Mitchell's place by reason of the fact that the majority of the people had recently voted with the democracy, and because Judge Mitchell's death took away the only democrat on the bench. In the event of such an appointment it was supposed that Judge W. E. Niblack, so long an honored justice, would be most conspicuous among those considered.

The appointment yesterday sets all speculation at rest, and elevates Mr. McBride to the place honored by his predecessor. The appointment upon the whole, seems to have met the general expectation, and is looked upon with favor. Judge McBride is a gentleman of excellent reputation. Like his predecessor he was a soldier, and rendered distinguished service to the state before he became known as a jurist. As a DeKalb county circuit judge, Mr. McBride is said to have righted many long standing wrongs, and to have aroused some little personal opposition thereby. Generally speaking, however, he is a popular and affable gentleman.

Judge McBride's appointment was recommended to the governor by the bars of nearly all the twenty-one counties in the judicial district which he will represent on the supreme bench. These recommendations were made by attorneys of both political parties and it is true that there was not a democrat application for the appointment.

TOOK ON ANOTHER LOVE.

There is a woman in Lafayette, Ind., who has lost much of the faith she once had in the masculine gender. She was bright, intelligent and good and never knew the want of a beau. One day she met a gentleman, a mutual attachment was formed and two years ago they united their hands and hearts for life it was thought. A babe came to gladden their home and all seemed sunshine and joy in their happy cottage.

The Lafayette Journal tells the story in this way: "A few months ago the husband became dissatisfied with Lafayette and moved to Fort Wayne. He found employment and made a home for his family in that thriving city. A short time ago the wife picked up a letter addressed to her husband. It was written in a feminine hand and the writing was strange to her. She opened it and read the contents. The words of tender affection traced within were entirely foreign to what should be addressed to a married man. While she was reading her husband came in, snatched the letter from her and upbraided her for prying into his private correspondence. It was not long until his wife found another letter written to her husband by the same woman. She even discovered him writing letters to his new love. That was too much and a scene followed. Their home life was not so happy after these startling discoveries.

"Just before Thanksgiving the husband urged his wife to visit her parents here and she came. She wrote him two letters after her arrival but did not receive an answer. She wrote a third letter and its tone rang of despair. He answered that, but not in the language her aching heart craved to hear.

"I have two of your letters here I have not opened," he said. "It seems to me you will take a hint some time. I quit housekeeping the next day after you left and have sold all of the furniture. I don't want to see you any more, and don't write to me."

"The cold, brutal language of his letter crushed the life out of his wife's heart. Her womanly pride asserted itself and she determined to gratify his desire to never see him again. But there was still a duty to perform. He had sold some articles of household use belonging to her and cast her and her child away from him without a penny to supply their wants. She had gone with him to the altar as a pure woman. She had one divinely womanly attribute—virtue, and it was stainless. She had left a comfortable home and indulgent parents to wed him and had given him her love and devotion unrestricted.

"After doing so much for him she now feels that he, although he has renounced her, should do something for her and their child, and has employed counsel to bring suit at Fort Wayne to compel him to supply means for the support of herself and child. Her demand is just.

"The lady feels the humiliation of her position deeply, and the Journal will not add weight to her already crushing burden by giving her name to the public. She is a deserted wife, and is suffering all the anguish attending that misfortune. Her sad experience is not new in history, but it is certainly deserving of sympathy.

OUR OWN GENIAL BOB.

Hon. Robert C. Bell Talks Knowingly on Important Questions.

Yesterday's Indianapolis Sentinel contained the following: "'I am for Cleveland, now,' said R. C. Bell, of Fort Wayne, to a number of politicians at the Grand last night. Mr. Bell has heretofore favored Hill for 1892, but he is now convinced that Cleveland is the logical candidate, and to fight the next campaign with Cleveland left out, would be like 'playing Hamlet without Hamlet in it.' Cleveland, he said, was the high priest of tariff reform, and the next battle would be won as the last one was won—on the tariff issue.

"Mr. Bell is connected, in a legal capacity, with the project to pipe natural gas to Chicago. The company has laid pipes from the gas fields of Howard county to Hammond. The Chicago aldermen were inclined to put on the screws and the company resisted it. This, action would result in making a large city in Lake county, this state. The 'Chicago' of Indiana would get natural gas, which would induce manufacturers to move over into Indiana and build the largest city in the state. He ridiculed the idea that natural gas would exhaust during the present generation. There was enough gas to last a hundred years, if not wasted. Natural gas, he said, was the champagne of fuel, and the trouble with many people was that they expected to obtain it at lager beer prices.

"On the question of fees and salaries, Mr. Bell said that the time was ripe for placing officers on salaries. The question had been before every legislature for ten years, but the people would stand no more delays. The demand for a salary bill was imperative. He was aware that this session would be a trying one for the members of the legislature. County officers would bring all the influence to bear upon their representatives possible. Between the people and the county officer the life of the legislator would be made miserable during the next two months, but he would advise members to stand by the platform, and the people would stand by them in the end.

"Mr. Bell served two terms in the state senate, where he was a recognized leader. He is one of the ablest lawyers in the state, and had he followed politics instead of adhearing to the law he would, no doubt, be a conspicuous member of congress to-day."

A Wonder Worker.

Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used half of a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is to-day enjoying good health. If you have any Throat, Lung or Chest Trouble try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at Dreier & Bro.'s drug store.

FRANKE FOOLED.

The Boys at the Water Works Pumping in the Role of Wags.

Some time ago the boys at the water works pumping house on the north side espied a rabbit running about the grounds surrounding the works. They had different times made efforts to capture it, but were not successful. Bunnie was too cute for them, and was having considerable fun at their expense; so much so, that one of the boys thought he would turn matters a little the other morning. Quite early he had occasion to make a trip outside the pumping house, when he came in all out of breath and reported that the rabbit was in sight, but a short distance away. A gun, which stood convenient, was procured, and all present rushed out to see the rabbit "bite the dust." But who should do the shooting? They were all marksmen, but this must be a sure shot. No more failures were wanted. After some parleying, during which each one presented his qualifications as a disciple of Buffalo Bill in the "dead shot" line, the weapon was handed to Gust Franke, the popular assistant engineer; he took aim, "bang" went the gun, and over went the rabbit. Gust rushed to the spot to bring back his prize. It was then that he discovered that he was the cruel victim of a practical joke by the boys. A trunkless rabbit head had been placed there, and that it was that received the charge of shot. The rest of the employes were all in on the joke, and had a great laugh on Gust.

MONROEVILLE.

Teachers' Institute to Be Held There —Local and Personal News.

The Monroeville public schools will have a two weeks' vacation during the holidays.

H. C. Davis has opened a grocery store at the corner of Main and South streets. Mr. Davis has for the last eight years been a clerk in Corbaley & Freeze's dry goods and grocery house.

Last Friday evening the residence of John Long, situated west of here, near the Marquardt crossing, burned to the ground, with a portion of the furniture.

Trustee Hoffman says that the attendance at the Dixon school has of late been so small that he has taken the matter into consideration of vacating the school next spring. He has the power to do so, as the school is not at its proper place, and the people there have lately found it out. The trustee, however, promises them not to vacate it, providing they send their children regularly to school.

Rev. Bowen, of the Lutheran church at this place, has just completed a very successful protracted meeting at Concord, and now presides at a meeting held at the Marquardt chapel.

A number of our young people attended the I. O. O. F. supper at Maples last Saturday evening.

W. A. Davis, the Noble county lecturer, lectured at the M. E. church last Saturday evening to a very small house.

One of the victims of Mrs. Woodworth's trance powers is living in this city. She was once a bright and intelligent young lady, but now her intellect is clouded and she has lost her reason. She attended Mrs. Woodworth's meetings and this was the result upon her.

Trustee Hoffman, the worthy servant of Monroe township, announces a teachers' institute, to be held Saturday at the Jones school. He is making every effort to make it a success. The place of holding this meeting is an exception to the usual custom, for this is the first meeting of the kind ever held directly within the territory of the trustee's jurisdiction, having always been held in the Monroeville high school building. The program is as follows: Prayer, Rev. D. Martin; music, instrumental, Prof. E. Grimsley; roll call; response; quotation from soldiers or sailors, as Washington, Jackson, Grant and Perry, giving place and circumstances; hints on teaching, I. O. Jones; civics, J. J. Peters; school decoration, (a) with what? (b) when? (c) how? (d) why? Miss May Williard and Luna Buchanan; brokerage, W. H. Winans; music, instrumental, O. Albaugh; language, A. D. Heintzleman; American literature, Miss Emma Peckham; hygiene, L. J. Wellabalm; the recitation, (a) for what purpose (b) how conducted, Rob Aurand; Obstacles in the Way of Success, Miss Addie Griffith. Time will be granted for discussion of each subject, at which all those present are at liberty to participate. A basket dinner will be the chief feature of the noon recess.

"Jack the Hugger" Not Dangerous.

(Columbia City Post.)

Fort Wayne ladies are greatly annoyed by "Jack the Hugger." So far all efforts of the police force to apprehend this mysterious individual have failed. He doesn't seem to be at all dangerous, but Fort Wayne women, it seems, object to being hugged upon the public streets.

"Listed," as the brokers say, at "100 Doses One Dollar," Hood's Sarsaparilla is always a fair equivalent for the price.

ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA!

Do you never, when you have a spare half hour, long for something good to read? Something interesting, but not trashy? Something that shall be always ready to your hand and not force you to spend your precious minutes hunting it up?. We offer you a collection of just that kind of literature.

Do you never, in your family, feel the urgent need of some reliable and standard work of reference to which you can turn with confidence when some discussion arises, or when information is needed on some special subject? We are prepared to fill that want for you, too.

Not to keep you in suspense, we propose to furnish you

THE AMERICANIZED
ENCYCLOPAEDIA
BRITANNICA
AND A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION TO
THE INDIANAPOLIS SENTINEL
OR FORT WAYNE SENTINEL
ON EIGHT MONTH'S TIME

For $10 Down and $2.50 a Month for Eight Months, $30 in all.

THE AMERICANIZED ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA is published in ten large, Illustrated and Handsomely Bound Volumes of nearly 14,000 columns and over 8,000,000 words.

Ever hear of the Encyclopedia Brittannica? Probably. If not, any literary man or librarian will tell you that it is universally accepted as the standard encyclopedia in the English language. It ought to be. It was originally published in 1771 and since that time has passed through nine editions, the latest of which was compiled fifteen years ago. In its lifetime of a hundred years and more it has gathered to itself the choicest work of the best writers of each successive generation sparing no expense to secure from every expert in every department of human knowledge the best he was capable of giving. On the preparation of its various editions it has spent more than three millions sterling, and the cost of the latest, or ninth, edition alone was not less than ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

But the Encyclopedia Britannica has three defects which detract from its usefulness in an American family. In the first place, part of its latest edition is now fifteen years—or half a generation—behind the age. In the next place, it makes no biographical mention of any persons who were living when it was compiled, no matter how famous they may have been; General Grant, even, is left out. And lastly, the Encyclopedia Britannica is an English work, compiled for the use of Englishmen in England, and, as is only natural under such circumstances, it treats at length subjects of peculiarly English interest exhaustively and those of purely American interest with far less than the subject warrants. Three pages to an English county and a column or less to an American state is about the proportion.

SMALL SNOW FLAKES.

As They Fell in the Shape of News Around the City's Busy Centers.

Mrs. Frank Sauerwein, of East Lewis street, is sick.

The Wabash pay car arrived in the city this morning at 9:45.

M. Bruner, janitor in the Pittsburg round house wash room, is sick.

J. Crawford, of the Bass boiler shop, is absent from duty on account of sickness.

F. Irvin has accepted a position as brakeman on the eastern division of the Pittsburg road.

Wm. Connors, of the Olds wagon works, is confined to his home on account of illness.

Engines 186 and 124 have been turned out of the Pittsburg shop after a general overhauling.

T. J. Leeper, engineer on the Pittsburg road, has become a member of the relief department.

Gust Grosh, of the Wabash machine shop, is absent from duty on account of the death of his brother.

Mr. McGrady has accepted a position as brakeman on the Stony Island division of the Nickel Plate road.

H. E. Killen, of the electric department of the Pittsburg shops, has returned from a trip to Chicago.

Engineer Wm. Stuart, of the Pittsburg road, and Fireman T. Fleming, of the Grand Rapids road, are off duty on account of illness.

Ed. Klinedinst, the popular young fireman on the Pittsburg road, is moving into his handsome new residence on East Washington street.

Sidney Lett, fireman on the Pittsburg road, will soon leave for a visit with his parents at Altoona, Pa. He will remain during the holidays.

The Car-service association of Toledo on Monday ceased delivering freight until all freight and demurrage charges are paid. This action is likely to bring the right of railroads to enforce such a regulation before the courts, as in Illinois it has recently been decided that a road could not legally withhold freight, even if the consignee owed demurrage charges.

James Fry, clerk in the Pittsburg store-room office, will leave to-morrow to spend the holidays with his parents at Delphi, Ind.

Chas. McElfatrick has accepted a position in the machine department of the Bass works. He was for a number of years employed as machinist in the Pittsburg shops.

Frank Wright, who for several years has been employed as engineer on the Pittsburg road, has left for east Buffalo, N. Y., to accept a similar position on the West Shore road.

General Manager J. R. Wood, of the Pennsylvania lines, was in the city last evening. He arrived in his special car attached to limited passenger train No. 9, and returned on No. 8.

E. Truesdale and W. K. Wilder, firemen on the Pittsburg road, are absent from their post of duty on account of sickness, and Firemen C. A. Prince, R. C. Chase and D. L. Mason, have reported after a few days illness.

The electric light works have shipped a 600 incandescent light plant to San Francisco, Cal., a sixty Wood arc light to Poconee, Wis., and a 100 incandescent light plant to Cincinnati, O.

The Clover Leaf road continues to make increased showings in the volume of business done. A great deal of substantial improvement has been made to the track within the past few months and the road is handling an immense business.

John Harvey yesterday began his thirty-second year as baggage-master on the Pennsylvania lines. He is now running on the Chicago division. Mr. Harvey claims to be the oldest in that branch of any man in the United States. It is said that he has been offered promotion, but preferred to remain where he is.

Geo. H. Newell, who has been the efficient clerk for two or three years at the office of General Foreman McClure, of the Wabash at the Andrews yards, has resigned, and last week removed with his family to Kokomo. He will have the position of assistant bookkeeper in the Citizens bank of that city. Mr. Newell is an excellent young man, thoroughly capable, and the bank has made an excellent selection.

All the Toledo telegraphers on the Lake Shore railroad have withdrawn from the Order of Railway Telegraphers. It seems that not long since W. M. Kline, superintendent of telegraphers on the line asked if they belonged to the order. To those who replied in the affirmative he addressed a communication requesting that they withdraw from the organization or send in their resignation to the road. The result is that not desiring to lose their position the operators have withdrawn from the order.

Frank Farrey, of the machine department of the Wabash shops, is doing honors over the arrival of twin babies to brighten his home. Frank's noble countenance is now illuminated with a lengthy smile.

Hugh Benigin has resigned his position in the moulding rooms of the Bass works, and will leave to accept a similar [illegible] out of the city. He was connected with the works for twenty-five years.

Michael Kinney, a laborer in the Pittsburg car shop, is confined to his home, 123 West DeWald street, by an injury to his right foot from having a piece of timber fall upon the member. The bones of the foot and toes were broken.

George Huff, watchman at the Calhoun street crossing of the Nickel Plate road, has resumed his duties after a few days' illness, and Daniel Donahoe, who was performing the duties during his absence, has resumed his duties in the Nickel Plate yard.

If Your House is on Fire

You put water on the burning timbers, not on the smoke. And if you have catarrh you should attack the disease in the blood, not in your nose. Remove the impure cause, and the local effect subsides. To do this, take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, which radically and permanently cures catarrh. It also strengthens the nerves. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Adelbert college glee and banjo club has been engaged by the members of the Electric club and will give an entertainment in their hall on the evening of December 29. This club stands in the front rank of college organizations. They give a well rendered and highly artistic concert, consisting of vocal and instrumental music. The program, though made up principally of college boys music, includes also compositions of a more classic tone, affording a very enjoyable evening's entertainment.

An Equivalent for Suicide.

If we allow our bodily infirmities to make away with us through neglect, have we such an immense moral advantage over the deliberate suicide? Scarcely. For example, the deadly progress of Bright's disease, diabetes, acute nephritis and gravel is sure—often terribly swift in the catastrophe. Most people of average information know that this is the simple, unvarnished truth in regard to those widely prevalent maladies. To delay judicious medication is especially suicidal in such cases. The means of restraint is to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Give an impetus to the action of the kidneys with this safe and reliable diuretic, and the infant complaint is shorn at its birth of the power for evil. Allow it to grow, and anticipate the worst. The Bitters, which annihilates these growing troubles, also eradicates dyspepsia, rheumatism, malarial and liver complaints. Appetite, sleep and vigor are also promoted by it.

HERE IT IS.

Some of the main advantages which have commended it to popular favor, may be summarized as follows:

1. It never slips in any direction.
2. The horse soon learns this fact, and consequently, whether pulling or trotting will always do his best.
3. It saves the horse from sprains and bruises which constantly result from insecure footing.
4. It avoids the injury to the horse's feet caused by a too frequent resetting of the shoes.
5. It greatly lessens the danger of injury from calking.
6. It saves the time, both of the horse and owner, as the insertion of new and sharp Calks is the work of only a few minutes.
7. Its use facilitates all kinds of business. Livery keepers, stage and express proprietors, horse railroad companies, market men, milk peddlers, teamsters, doctors, and all whose horses are in constant requisition, are enabled by the use of this shoe to meet their engagements promptly, however slippery the traveling may be.

Owing to the great demand for this shoe, Mr. Wm. Geary, the horse shoer, has secured the agency for Fort Wayne.

The reputation of Mr. Geary, the horse shoer, is second to none in the city, and his endorsement of the shoe, guarantees satisfaction. Call on him at

WANTED—The people who purchased lots in Lakeside, when they were first put upon the market, can now sell their lots at an advance in price that would show an annual interest on the amount invested of from fifty to eighty per cent. The timid, the unprogressive and the suspicious didn't keep up with the procession and so were "left" as they deserved to be. Fort Wayne is going rapidly to the front of Indiana cities, and the unreasonably low prices at which real estate is selling cannot long continue. The advance will nowhere be so rapid as in beautiful Lakeside. 6-tf

Fort Wayne Sentinel.

THURSDAY, DEC. 18, 1890.

LOCAL NEWS.

Christmas trees are already in demand.

Mrs. Krudop, of West Jefferson street, is ill.

Mrs. Hoover, of Huntington, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Adelia McMahen, of East Wayne street, is critically ill.

N. N. Purman has received an increase of his army pension.

Peter Martin, a lime dealer of Huntington, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Belle Doyle, of 70 Wilt street, is recovering from a severe illness.

Miss Hattie Bennett, of Bluffton, is in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. H. Barcus.

The Fort Wayne Electric company will make a display at the World's Fair in Chicago.

The merchants were prepared for the pay days which occurred yesterday and last evening did a fair business.

The new houses in Lakeside now number twenty-six and twice as many more will be erected next season.

It is said that a leading Calhoun street dry goods establishment may double the size of its store next year.

The Taylor University has an excellent attendance of students and is rapidly working its way to the front as an educational institution.

Yesterday was the last day of the December sitting of the county commissioners. They will have no special meetings until some time next week.

Miss Helen Heller, daughter of Mahlon D. Heller, entertained a large number of young people at her home corner Cass and Third streets, in a pleasant manner last evening.

Mr. Slattery has made a handsome wager with a friend that he will have a street car equipped with his new storage battery in operation in Fort Wayne by the end of the year.

Clarence Cook, city editor of The Sentinel, who has been confined to his home by illness since last Sunday, will resume his position to-morrow. Our readers have no doubt missed his newsy pencilings.

Tom Baxter, Gust Franke and Frank Itan the city water works inspector, were out in Madison township rabbit hunting on Tuesday. Result: one rabbit; and those who seen it believe it was some one's pet.

John F. Niezer, of Monroeville, who went to Mt. Clemens, Mich., about five weeks ago to take treatment for various forms of rheumatism, will arrive in the city this evening over the Wabash, much improved in health.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says: "John I. White and D. N. Foster, business men of Fort Wayne, are at the Grand. Mr. White is connected with the Bass wheel works, the largest concern of its kind in the world."

The Bluffton Bugle says: "Maurice Edris is a Fort Wayne visitor until to-morrow.—Asbury Dugley and little son spent the day in Allen county's metropolis.—Mrs. Alice Hixon was at Fort Wayne to-day, visiting friends."

Samuel Henderson, foreman of the Pittsburg copper shop, celebrated his natal day yesterday. He would not disclose to The Sentinel reporter just what number it was, but assured him it was less than the last one celebrated by Colonel Fred Drake, who is remembered by the "oldest inhabitant."

Prof. M. N. Plumadore, the well known instructor on the violin in the Fort Wayne Conservatory of Music, will be married on the evening of December 24th, to Miss Carrie Koontz, at the home of the bride's parents in Camden, Carrol county. Miss Koontz graduated at the conservatory and is now a teacher there.

The citizens of Huntington who are consumers of natural gas, had an unpleasant experience on Tuesday night. The regulator on the outskirts of the city refused to do its work, and the supply of gas was shut off. It was 8 o'clock Wednesday morning before all patrons could be notified, and the gas turned on again.

A delightful party was given by the Misses Smith, at their home on Butler street, Friday evening, in honor of Miss Marvin, of Buffalo. Among those present were the Misses Gilbert and Mantell, of Buffalo; Misses Edwards, Royce, Rhodabeaver, Michaels, and Messrs. Keller, Barnes, Stapleford, Mann, Klotz and Frank.

The sportingmen of Indianapolis have arranged for a mill between Dan Jordan, the local colored pugilist, and "Red" Hennessy, to spar with four-ounce gloves, twenty-five days from December 20. The fight is for $200 a side, and is to be within twenty miles of Indianapolis. J. W. Johnson, Jordan's backer, and Tommy Miller, who is backing Hennessy, each put up $50 forfeit. The articles of agreement have been signed.

W. W. Whitney sues John G. Lehr for $500 on notes.

Newton B. Freeman, of Spy Run avenue, is quite ill.

Miss Lizzie Reidmiller will leave Saturday for Logansport.

Wm. McLaughlin, left last evening for a trip to Duluth, Minn.

A baby daughter has come to make happy the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Nogle.

The ladies of the English Lutheran church had a pleasant social and supper last night.

Miss Daisy Simonson is visiting at Ashland, Wis. She will be absent for several weeks.

An interesting entertainment will be given this evening at the First Presbyterian church.

The railroads are arranging for their holiday travel which promises to be good this year.

Mesdames C. L. and H. E. Drummond went to Huntington to-day to spend the holidays.

Thomas Stewart, of the Boston store, is being visited by his sister, Mrs. Coull, of Scotland.

Mrs. Catherine O'Connell, of 259 Webster street, left last evening for a visit at Pine Bluff, Arkansas.

The pay days this week and the approaching holidays makes business very good among our city merchants.

Fort Wayne lodge, No. 19, A. O. U. W., held a meeting last evening and nominated officers for the ensuing year.

W. A. Thomas, of Logansport, has taken a position as bookkeeper in the office of McDonald & Wilt, the grocer.

James E. Graham, the attorney, is entertaining his brother-in-law, C. J. Gotshall, the secretary of the St. Paul plow works.

John H. Brown has been divorced from Mahala Brown, and the woman allowed to resume her maiden name, Mahala Wherry.

The year will come to an end and not witness the building of the new Mahoning railroad about which so much has been said and written.

Mrs. H. O'Connell, of 259 Webster street, left this morning for Riverside, Col., for her health. Her son Ed. and her daughter Frankie accompanied her as far as Chicago.

The case of Max Kowinski against George and Mary Ohneck is on trial in the supreme court to-day. The plaintiff sues for a commission of $300 for selling real estate for the defendants.

O. E. Mohler went to Huntington yesterday to see his father, who had the misfortune to fall and dislocate his hip. As the senior Mohler is sixty-nine years old, his injuries are quite serious.

Next Sunday at the Tabernacle of the People Pastor Northrop will preach an appropriate sermon to the hundreds of couples he has joined in holy wedlock the past eight or nine years. The friends of the same are also kindly urged to come. It will be a unique and interesting service. One and all are welcome.

The Balmoral choir, which comes to the Temple to-morrow night, is one of the best musical organizations in the world and those who fail to attend will miss a grand treat. It embraces the very highest cultured singers and their sweet melodies will charm the audience. The tickets for this entertainment are selling very rapidly.

The "Clemenceau Case" will be presented at the Temple Saturday evening. While "The Clemenceau Case" is Frenchy, yet there have been many plays produced without adverse criticism in which the objectionable side of the inner life of immoral women has been portrayed. Like all works which emanate from the pen of Dumas, the piece is full of situations of great dramatic force and calling for good acting.

The Columbia City Post says: "Mr. Albert Bush, a well-known teacher of Jefferson township, this county, is now located in Fort Wayne in the grocery business. The people of Fort Wayne will find Mr. Bush to be a straight forward and honorable gentlemen in every respect. The Post wishes him the greatest measure of success in his new business enterprise.—Sheriff McNabb was in Fort Wayne last week and saw the notorious Kuhns. He thinks he met Kuhns last summer at the Farmer's alliance picnic at Shriner's lake."

Yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Charity Wilkinson, of 225 East Wayne street, received a telegram that her son, John N. Wilkinson, of Valparaiso, was quite sick. She reported this information to her son Deputy Sheriff Tom Wilkinson, who left immediately for his brothers bed side. Later another dispatch was received saying he was much worse, and Justice of the Peace James Wilkinson and his mother, also took a train for Valparaiso to attend him. He has three sisters living here, who are Mrs. Thomas Morton, of 302 East Wayne street, and Mrs. Arney and Miss Minnie, who live with their mother at 225 East Wayne street. Mr. Wilkinson suffers from gall stones in the bladder. He is a dealer in agricultural implements and is township trustee.

Rev. Dr. Moffat is reported as better to-day.

The justice courts were devoid of news to-day.

Little Georgia Miller, of West Jefferson street, is on the sick list.

Henry Reker and Erst Hitzeman will leave next Tuesday for Chicago.

Officer Konnelly and the prisoner, Kuhns both continue to improve.

Miss Hanna Walker, of Pontiac street, will spend Christmas at Decatur.

Wm. A. Keyser, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Keyser, of Glasgow avenue, is quite ill.

R. O. Boyles, of Belle avenue, will go to Decatur to spend Christmas with his father-in-law.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a purely vegetable compound, innocent in nature and wonderful in effect. For children it is invaluable, curing croup, whooping cough, etc., in a few hours. Price 25 cents.

Mr. W. B. Graves, of Wetheredville, Md., writes: "I suffer some times with acute rheumatism, and your Salvation Oil gives me instantaneous relief. I cordially recommend it as a sure cure.

TURNING WHITE.

Springfield, Ohio, Dec. 18.—[Special.]—Mr. James Wilson is a young colored man thirty-five years of age. Some ten months ago a slight discoloration of the skin was noticed on the neck. Since then the circles of discoloration, inside of which the skin is white, have largely increased, until they cover nearly half the body, giving him the appearance of being half white and half colored. A physician of the city, who has been noting the phenomena, states that the man will be all white inside of two years. He is a wonderful curiosity.
